Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.”

Luke 10:42
KNOW SOMEONE WHO WANTS TO BECOME A CATHOLIC?

Every year in Catholic Churches throughout the country, men and women seeking to journey in faith with a parish community gather together for what is known as the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) or sometimes simply called, “The Catechumenate.”

Persons participating in the RCIA can fit into several categories.

1. If you are unbaptized and wish to become a member of the Catholic Church.
2. If you are a baptized Christian of another denomination (e.g. Lutheran, Methodist, Baptist, etc.) who would like to be a member of the Catholic Church.
3. If you are a baptized Catholic who has not practiced the faith or needs to receive the sacraments of Confirmation and/or Eucharist.

Whatever the reason, participants in the RCIA come from a variety of backgrounds. In many cases they have been attracted to the Catholic Church by a priest, friend, co-worker, fiancée or spouse who have witnessed to the love of God in their own lives. Participants in the RCIA often become the best informed of Catholics, committed and actively living the faith.

If you are interested, or if you know of someone who might be, call Josylin Mateus, who is the coordinator of our parish program, at 248-647-4680. Our RCIA will be starting very soon (August 13th). You are invited to share a unique experience. One that will change your life.

CITIZENS’ PETITION DRIVE

A citizens’ petition drive to initiate legislation to prohibit the dismemberment abortion procedure has just gotten underway. This petition drive, operating under the committee name “Michigan Values Life,” is organized by Right to Life of Michigan and is supported by the Michigan Catholic Conference (MCC). Archbishop Vigneron is encouraging diocesan and parish participation in the overall effort to gather signatures as well.

Since the campaign is an initiative proposal, issue-based and specific to legislation, churches are able to speak our and distribute as much material as they wish.

So, by now you’ve either read my article from last week, or you’ve heard from others that I am going to be ending my assignment here at St Thomas More, and going to serve at my hometown parish of Guardian Angels, in Clawson. My last weekend here will be August 24/25. This week’s message will be my last article that I write for the Bulletin.

I want to thank Msgr. Rice for inviting me to join him here, as he began his assignment as Pastor of STM. From Day-1, he has treated me as a valued and integral part of the pastoral team. I’m so grateful for the opportunity that he gave me to come to work with him here, and to serve you as deacon. He’s been a cherished sounding-board, mentor, and confidant as I’ve learned my role here, and how best I would be able to serve. “Thank you, friend!”

I also want to thank you for reading these articles. I hope that in some way, you have found these messages to be humorous, insightful, and helpful. I’ve shared with you some pretty personal stuff…and tried to offer a message that connects the dots between the theology of our Church…and the ways we’re called by God to live our faith. Thanks for welcoming me along for the journey that these messages were intended to offer.

If I may, I’d like to offer a few closing observations about St. Thomas More.

This is an amazing parish. You are a generous, engaging, and approachable community. Ministries like St Vincent de Paul, Men’s and Women’s Fellowship, and so many others…are able to thrive here, thanks to your personal investment of time, talent…and yes, treasure. I don’t think of God as some big ‘bean-counter’ in the sky…but He knows what’s in your hearts…He knows your level of commitment to Him and His Church…and He’s grateful. The people and community who live all around the parish of STM are grateful for you, and what YOU do to make the world a better place. Thank you!

Now is the time to turn outward and seek to encourage and invite people to join you on your faith journey. Welcome your neighbors, friends, colleagues, children and grandchildren to join you for Mass…and then treat them to breakfast… I’m not suggesting you ‘guilt’ anyone into coming…invite them! Showing them how your faith has helped you and sustained you…being that witness…THAT is what will eventually help them to consider keeping the faith.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We the Christian Community of St. Thomas More, in an atmosphere of hospitality, are dedicated to proclaiming the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ through excellence in worship, education, and service to others.

We believe that the nurturing of the community around the Eucharistic Table is extended through gatherings which further strengthen and support us.

We shall pursue this mission faithfully through the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.
Questions about Funerals

What music is allowed?
“Music is integral to the Funeral Rites. It allows the community to express convictions and feelings that word alone may fail to convey. It has the power to console and uplift the mourners and to strengthen the unity of the assembly in faith and love. The texts of the songs chosen for a particular celebration should express the paschal mystery of the Lord’s suffering, death, and triumph over death and should be related to the readings from Scripture.” (OCF 30)

Popular non-liturical songs are not be used in the Funeral Liturgy.

Can we have a Eulogy?
A eulogy is not allowed during the Funeral Liturgy. Family or friends may be invited to share such a testimony at the Vigil or at the memorial luncheon or reception that often follows the funeral. The OCF does allow for a family member or friend to “speak in remembrance of the deceased before the final commendation begins” (OCF 170), however those words should not be a eulogy.

Theology of the Body Study - #3
In the Image of God
In the first creation account of the Bible it states, God created mankind in his image; in the image of God he created them (Genesis 1:27a). What does it mean to be created in God’s image? The Catholic Church teaches that every person possesses great sacredness; an awesome and immeasurable dignity. It is an intrinsic quality given to human life by God. We are born with it, and it can’t be taken away from us. An elderly person who can no longer take care of herself is holy and blessed. A newborn baby who depends on his parents for everything is sacred. The same dignity is intrinsic to a paraplegic person, a fetus in the womb and a homeless child. How about a criminal or someone who commits a grave sin? Yes, they are also created in the image of God with inherent dignity. The other gift of being created in God’s image is that we are all given a free will. Written in our hearts is a desire for God, but it is up to us to choose Him. Our Creator is gentle and does not force us to love Him, otherwise we would be no different from programmed robots. As I tell students, all of our choices in life, no matter how large or small the consequences, will bring us either closer or further away from God. The person who chooses to rob a store distances himself further away from God. Why would anyone choose to distance themselves from God? The answer to this is found in Genesis 3, which will be covered next week. Until then, my prayers for a blessed week for all of us!

Catholicism 101!
Do you know someone not baptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is thirsting for what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation and/or Communion, or just want to know more about the Catholic faith? Extend an invitation to attend our “no obligation” inquiry gatherings beginning August 13, and consider accompanying them on their journey of faith. This is a great place to enter into the shallow end and get their/your feet wet. Call Josylin Mateus for more information at 248-647-4680 or email josylin@stmoffice.com.

I read a great analogy about parenting. I’m paraphrasing, and I apologize, I don’t recall who said it…but the essential message was this. ‘Parenting is like those builders who built the enormous Cathedrals of Europe. No one who started the project – lived long enough to see the finished product…but look at what they (eventually!) accomplished!’ We’ll not live here long enough to see what eventually comes of our children and grandchildren…etc…but dream big! Hope for the best, pray for those you love…and give them the SOLID FOUNDATION of your witness to the faith. That foundation is built on your story. Your story of defeat…and getting back up. Your story of joys and sorrows…and how God has seen you through. Your life is one more chapter in God’s story of divine revelation. Share that message with those you love.

While it’s true that I’m leaving…you’ll always be wherever I am. I’m profoundly grateful for this time that we’ve shared. “Go in peace, and proclaim the Good New – with your lives!”

Thanks be to God!

Chris

Stewardship Reflection

July 21, 2019 — Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s Gospel reading from St. Luke, we receive a reminder about the proper use of the gift of time, a fundamental aspect of a stewardship way of life. Our passage highlights one of the most famous dinner parties ever thrown, recalling the day that Martha and Mary hosted our Lord in their home. We are told that Martha, as a good steward, welcomes Christ in but then becomes “burdened with much serving” while her sister and fellow hostess chooses to simply sit with Jesus, listening to Him speak.

Martha becomes indignant at Mary’s behavior and complains to Jesus, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me.” But Jesus, in His infinite wisdom, refuses to get pulled in to this sisterly spat. Instead, He offers Martha a fresh way to look at the situation. “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing.”

What is that one thing? It is to put Jesus first in our lives and above all other things; to “sit at his feet” and listen as Mary did, giving Him the first priority of our time no matter how busy we think we are. When we truly commit to putting Christ first in our daily lives through a regular time of prayer and frequent participation in the sacraments we will find that all our other concerns become less pressing, less overwhelming.

Why is this so? Because the time we invest in our relationship with God saturates all aspects of our lives with His grace. And because God cannot be outdone in generosity. He will abundantly reward any sacrifice we make in order to spend time with Him.
