No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other.

Luke 16:13
ANNULMENT/TRIBUNAL

Like many priests I am often asked the questions, “What is an annulment?” “How do you get one?” “What is the tribunal?” These are certainly legitimate questions to be asked not only by those reviewing the Church’s annulment procedure but by all Catholics as well. What follows is an explanation of what an annulment is. I hope it is helpful.

Anyone who has been previously married and wishes to marry in the Catholic Church needs to seek the assistance of the Metropolitan Tribunal in order to determine their ability to do so. An annulment is merely a declaration by the Church Tribunal that a marriage was not canonically valid. The Marriage Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Detroit is composed of a staff delegated to act on behalf of the Archbishop in making such a determination.

The priests and lay persons connected with the Tribunal are there to help people in applying the Gospel and present Catholic Church Law to one’s present situation. The Catholic Church believes that marriage is sacred and that it affects the family, society, and the Church. Marriage is not something that is totally private. The Church believes that one’s previous marriage, often painful, is sacred as well.

The Catholic Church states that “The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of the whole of life, is by its nature ordered toward the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of off-spring” (Canon 1055). In Marriage, the couple is considered as a permanent sign of this reality. It is on the basis of this initial commitment that one’s marriage is treated.

A Church declaration of nullity has no civil effect: an ecclesiastical declaration of nullity DOES NOT affect the legitimacy of children in civil or in Church law. Such a declaration does not impute guilt to either party. An ecclesiastical declaration of nullity merely gives assurance from the Catholic Church that the information available gives the Church reason to believe that the consent given at the marriage ceremony did not meet the requirements of Catholic Church Law.

All persons who desire to marry in the Catholic Church have the right to ask the Metropolitan Tribunal to investigate the possibility of the nullity of their former marriage. If you have any questions, consult myself or Deacon Michael. We are here to help you.

Have a wonderful autumn week and please remember to find a place for me in your prayers.

Msgr. Tom Rice

SVdP Fall Clothing Drive October 5 & 6

Are you out shopping for new fall and winter clothes? Pack up those gently used clothes and plan to donate them to St. Vincent de Paul.

Pods will be in the front church parking lot and able to accept clothes and small household items on Saturday, October 5th from 2:00-6:00pm and Sunday, October 6th from 7:00am—5:00pm. Plastic bags will be out on the Information Counter on September 28 & 29.

We are also looking for volunteers to assist with the manning of the pods. If you need Christian Service Hours, this is a great way to fulfill that requirement and to help with this important project. For more information, call John Ranieri at 248-641-8720.
Passing on the Faith

Join us on Sunday, September 29th at 7:00 PM in the Social Hall for the “Passing on the Faith” presentation by guest speaker Tara Stenger from the Office of Youth and Ministry at the AOD. This presentation is for our middle school parents, however adults of all ages are welcome.

This presentation will:
- Make an honest assessment of young people and faith
- Examine how parents can better inspire faith in future generations.
- Address practical issues such as how to talk about the faith and its tradition with your children, and how to apprentice and model our faith as parents.

Hello,

My name is Paul Touillon and I joined St. Thomas More almost 2 years ago. I am 24 years old and work for an automotive supplier based in Rochester Hills.

I was confirmed last year through the RCIA program. This was a great opportunity to meet other young adults with the same wish of strengthening their faith and understand how it can affect our daily life. This motivated me to become active within the parish and decided to create a group dedicated to young adults.

Within the group, we would approach topics that relate to our generation (society, relationships, work environment…) where people can share their thoughts and points of view. The purpose of this group is to better integrate young adults into the parish by making them feel more welcomed.

Our first meeting will be Tuesday, October 1st at 6:30 PM at St. Thomas More (food will be provided). The group is open for ages 18 to 35 years old and we meet once a week for a meal at St. Thomas More or outside. If you would like to join the group, please contact YoungAdults.fromSTM@gmail.com.

Also, if you know people (within or outside the parish) who would be interested in joining the group, please share this invitation with them. It would be great to have other young adults willing to join the group! Thank you.

Have a blessed day!
Paul

Charitable Trust & IRA Distribution Donations

A couple weeks back Diane Claeys (Stewardship Commission Representative) wrote an article regarding charitable giving options. She noted that there are options for giving that can assist with personal income tax situations. Charitable Trusts and Required Minimum IRA Distributions are two vehicles to donate to St. Thomas More Parish that can affect your taxable income. I wanted to know how much the parish had received so far this year from these giving options. As of August 31, 2019, St. Thomas More Parish has received $24,695 from parishioner’s contributions from Charitable Trusts & IRA Distributions. This averages to $3,086 per month. These gifts are included in our monthly offertory report as “Donations received in office”. You may want to look into these giving options with your tax and financial consultants for future donation options.

“Quod Dominus Operam eius Desiderat”
by John Hannigan

A priest about to be consecrated bishop asked a priest friend of his for advice on a motto for a coat-of-arms. His friend suggested the passage above: “The Lord has need of his service” (Luke 19:31). Since the new bishop felt deeply that he was indeed called to serve, he chose this passage as particularly appropriate to his vocation. Only later did he recall that the “him” in Luke 19:31 refers to the ass Jesus rode into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday! We should treasure friends who keep us humble.

Unleash the Gospel says we all have a calling to be of service to the Lord (even if we do act like asses at times). We are all called to holiness and to love our neighbors. Another vocation we share as members of the Church is to spread the Good News of salvation through Jesus by how we live our lives. This sharing is evangelization. Unleash the Gospel recalls Pope Paul VI’s teaching: “Evangelizing is in fact the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize.’ Evangelizing is therefore a responsibility not only of bishops, priests, and religious, but of every individual Christian” (¶3.1).

Everyone has a particular vocation, a certain way to live the Gospel and evangelize. Our challenge, at any age, can be to figure out what God is calling us to. Pope Benedict XVI taught that God has given each of us a “personal vocation ... for our own joy and sanctity.” A vocation is not a burden; it is a fulfillment of God’s plan for us, a plan initiated at our Baptism and that lays out a joy-filled path for us.

Some are called to married life; others to ordination as priests or deacons; others to consecrated lives as religious or as single persons. Many are called to serve as catechists and ministers in parishes. Everyone is called in some way but many do not respond. They may not have listened carefully for the call or considered thoughtfully how to serve. There are ways to help us discern our vocation and they all begin with humility and prayer.

- Pray for guidance from the Holy Spirit
- Pray for courage
- Attend to the gifts and talents you have from God
- Be patient; seek advice from the wise
- Listen to your mind, and heart, and gut
- Spend time before the Blessed Sacrament
- Look to Jesus who humbly prayed, “Father, Thy will be done...”
