HELLOS and GOODBYES: Cycles on the Spiritual Journey TBA 2021

Every human being has encountered a forced change in life as they once knew it. In some way, every person has experienced loss—whether it be of a loved one, job/career, financial security, social connections and routines, among many others, as a result of the coronavirus. Each one of us has experienced goodbyes or deaths of some sort. In social isolation, most of us have taken time to reflect—have even been forced to reflect—on these losses. But, have we considered what we have gained? What are the hellos or new life God is inviting us to? Come explore the common pattern of hello's and goodbye's on the spiritual journey, and discover how despite the pain, grief, or anxiety we encounter in them, they can be opportunities for us to grow closer to God and invitations to live the life God desires for us.
