It’s “Demo Day” in the church!

After the doors were ritually closed at this past weekend’s Masses, work began on Phase 4 of our Restore and Renew process

Anyone who has watched Fixer Upper knows that “Demo Day” is the best day!

There is a carousel of photos (often cheekily captioned by Father George!) on our Parish Website that will be documenting the process of Phase 4 of the Restore and Renew project—some from as early as 6am Monday morning: Demo Day #1!

You can follow along as we remove all of the pews for refinishing, remove and replace the asbestos floor tiles, tear out the duct taped carpet (above center—that was satisfying!) and install beautiful new carpet, installing the new permanent Baptismal Font (work begun above left), and installing handrails in the sanctuary steps.

This past week also included some “constructive” work as we transitioned the Parish Hall into our summer worship space. Scaffolding was temporarily erected (above right) to hang a crucifix, and chairs, walls, and statuary are being arranged to turn the Hall from a gathering space to a place of prayer. We can’t wait to see the finished project!
Sports Camp review coming next week!

Twenty of our teens coordinated a week-long Summer Sports Camp for the kids at the Lakeside Apartments, low-income housing run by Contra Costa Interfaith Housing.

As this bulletin goes to print, only one day of camp has gone by, and it was great! Stay tuned for next week’s review of the camp and see how you can get involved next year.

Do you like our new look?

Our bulletin will be slimmed down for the summer!

Most of our catechetical and formation programs take a break for the summer, coordinating with the school year. Many of the organizations we partner with in offering retreats, service opportunities, and faith enrichment also take a break.

We’ll be back to our regular 6-page bulletin in August as our programs and events pick back up and we have more exciting news to announce!

Congratulations to our Confirmandi!

This past weekend we celebrated not only the graduation of many of our teens from High School, but also the Sacrament of Confirmation!

We are so grateful to the parents, catechists, teen Faith in Action Team members, and the teens themselves for staying true to the path and dedicated to the program so they could get to this moment—where they are sent by the Holy Spirit to the world, “speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God” (Acts 2:11).
