

Your Daily Camino

22 March Sunday

“I am the light of the world. No follower of mine shall wander in the dark; he shall have the light of life.” Gospel of John 8:12

23 March Monday

“Christ said “I am the Truth”, He did not say “I am the custom.” St Turibius of Mogrovejo

24 March Tuesday

“Know for a certainty that if men understood how terrible is even one solitary sin, they would rather be cast into a heated furnace, and there remain, living both in soul and body, than to support such a sight. And if the sea were all fire they would cast themselves therein and never leave it, if they were certain of meeting the sin on doing so.” Catherine of Genoa

25 March Wednesday

“Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.”
Holy Mary, Mother of God

26 March Thursday

“Mishaps are like knives, that either serve us or cut us, as we grasp them by the blade or by the handle.” James Russell Lowell

27 March Friday

“The Church is that one wherein the true word of God is preached, which Christ left to His Apostles, which the same Church hath always observed, the doctors preached, and Martyrs and confessors witnessed. This is the Church I believe to be true.” Margaret Clitherow

28 March Saturday

“A life woven with hope was the life of Bl. Francesco Faà di Bruno, whom I had the joy to raise to the honors of the altar on 25 September 1988. Impelled by the inner desire to cooperate in the salvation of his brethren, he was concerned with their final destiny. Humanity’s ultimate goal is the meeting with God, a meeting that one needs to prepare for from now on with a constant ascetical effort, rejecting evil and doing good.” Saint John Paul II