Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my Soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

June 21, 2020 - 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." (Matthew 10:32)
Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

LOCKING THE CHURCH

Both the parish pastoral council and parish finance council have discussed in their previous meetings and decided that there is a need to lock our church building at night. This is because our insurance policy requires that the church be locked at night. Secondly, Catholic churches hold the Most Holy Eucharist in the tabernacle and must be protected from vandalism or any other harm. Thirdly, with so many vandalisms and destructions of properties currently taking place in cities across the US, there is a need to protect our church building and its contents from any form of harm. So, this past week, Lawrence Wright, a locksmith from Warroad came and installed an automatic door locking system at the main entrance door only. It is programmed to lock automatically at 10:00 pm and open at 6:00 am. These times can be reviewed as it may be necessary. All the other doors of the church will be locked manually and only opened when necessary. There is a keypad on the outside of the main door. If you need access to the Church for private prayer after it is locked, contact the parish office, and get a code, which will give you access. Codes may be requested for a single event or for on-going access. Code use can be tracked. The handicap push button works normally once the door is open.

We thank the group of parishioners whose donation made it possible for us to install this automatic door lock system and secure our church building. May the good Lord bless them most abundantly and grant their intentions. If you have any questions or need any clarification, please contact the parish office.

Be Not Afraid: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Jeremiah 20:10–13

Psalm 69:8–10, 14, 17, 33–35

Romans 5:12–15

Matthew 10:26–33

Our commitment to Christ will be put to the test.

We will hear whispered warnings and denunciations, as Jeremiah does in today's First Reading. Even so-called friends will try to trap us and trip us up.

For His sake we will bear insults and be made outcasts—even in our own homes, we hear in today's Psalm.

As Jeremiah tells us, we must expect that God will challenge our faith in Him, and probe our minds and hearts, to test the depths of our love.

“Do not be afraid,” Jesus assures us three times in today's Gospel.

Though He may permit us to suffer for our faith, our Father will never forget or abandon us. As Jesus assures us today, everything unfolds in His Providence, under His watchful gaze—even the falling of the tiniest sparrow to the ground. Each one of us is precious to Him.

Steadfast in this faith, we must resist the tactics of Satan. He is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul in Gehenna, or hell.

We are to seek God, as the Psalmist says. Zeal for the Lord's house, for the heavenly kingdom of the Father, should consume us, as it consumed Jesus (see John 2:17). As Jesus bore the insults of those who blasphemed God, so should we (see Romans 15:3).

By the gracious gift of himself, Jesus bore the transgressions of the world, Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In rising from the dead, He has shown us that God rescues the life of the poor, that He does not spurn His own when they are in distress. In His great mercy, He will turn toward us, as well. He will deliver us from the power of the wicked.

That is why we proclaim His name from the housetops, as Jesus tells us. That is why we sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Eucharist. We are confident in Jesus' promise—that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our heavenly Father.
