FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

For the next five Sundays, we will hear from the Sermon on the Mount, the first of five great speeches we hear from Jesus in Matthew's Gospel. Since Matthew's community was largely composed of Jewish Christians, the evangelist presents Jesus as the new Moses. Just as Moses was believed to have written the first five books of the Bible, called the Torah, Matthew gives Jesus five great speeches that fulfill the Law of Moses. Notice that Jesus sits down, the posture of a rabbi, or teacher, then begins to instruct His followers, called disciples, that is, learners. The Beatitudes serve as the prologue for the ethics of those called to live in the Kingdom of Heaven. It starts now! Those who take up these beatitudes are "the remnant" referred to by the prophet Zephaniah and "the foolish ... the weak ... and the lowly" chosen by God to confound "the powerful ... the wise [and] the strong" that Paul holds up to the Corinthians (1 Corinthians 1:27, 28, 29, 26). These live now in Christ Jesus who is the wisdom of God. Living the Beatitudes is not easy. These are not the values of our culture, but consider the promised rewards.

Are you willing to live as a child of the Kingdom of Heaven now?

Our Core Values

"Consider your own calling, Brothers and Sisters"

(second reading)

"Humility recognizes God as He is.

Humility and trust are what makes a person truly human (Pope Benedict XVI)

Attitudes and skills that God expects of us.

The Beatitudes reveal the way of living that characterizes God's Kingdom. They are the spirit of happiness, love, peace, justice, mercy and generosity required of those who follow Jesus. The Beatitudes help us to pray and live well.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

We are to be glad and rejoice. The Beatitudes translated means "happy." If we want to be truly happy we are to center our lives on God. Jesus lived what He preached and we must become like Jesus and we will be able to do what Jesus tells us to do: "Be glad and rejoice for your reward in heaven is great."

Catechists are needed for the 2017-2018 Religious Education school year.

We are in need of practicing Catholics that have received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation).

Please consider volunteering for the 2017-2018 Religious Education school year (September-May). Sessions will be held on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. This is a wonderful way to pass your faith on to the children of our parish. Please email us at the Religious Education office, hreligioused@live.com, or call 769-0030 x 123/124. If you would like to speak with a current Catechist or to sit in on a class, we would be happy to make this arrangement. We offer training for new Catechists; this includes materials and guidelines. You will be required by the Archdiocese of New York to complete a background check and view a Safer Spaces training video in conjunction with the Protection of God's Children policy.

Registration for 2017-2018 is coming soon. We need to know that we will have enough Catechists before registration forms can be mailed. Please consider volunteering now so our children do not miss out on the gift of faith that is rightly theirs. Thank you in advance.

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord
Thursday, February 2nd

This Feast is about Jesus, the light of the world, who dispels the darkness of sin and death. That is why this is the day traditionally designated by the Church for the blessing of candles, hence the Feast's traditional name: "Candlemas."

May the word of God proclaimed on the Feast of Candlemas inspire us to bring the light of Christ to a world longing for hope and peace.

The blessing [of throats] may be given by touching the throat of each person with two candles blessed on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (February 2) and which have been joined together in the form of a cross.

Feast of St. Blaise
Friday, February 3rd

"Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

Throats will be blessed at the 6:30am and 8:30am Masses.
