THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Words of fire can ignite hearts grown weary—and fiery words of faith can renew hearts grown cold. First we hear Peter, whose words had not long before denied knowing Jesus, now boldly proclaiming, “God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses” (Acts 2:32). Cowardice had been transformed into courage. Then we listen to two disciples—some say a married couple—who meet a stranger, appearing downcast when they first speak to him. After telling him about this Jesus who had been crucified, they conclude with obvious disappointment, “We were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel” (Luke 24:21). But it is the very words of Jesus as he accompanies them, explaining the Scriptures, that lead them to exclaim, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures?” (24:32). The joy of Easter faith can be renewed and deepened in us as we listen to God’s word over the fifty days of Easter, attending to the witnesses in Acts, the voice of the first letter of Saint Peter, and the Gospels of the Easter season.

Ask for the fire of Easter faith to burn within you. Is your heart open to being inflamed?

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

769-0030 X 123

hrrreligioused@live.com

The Liturgy of the Word “Hear and Listen” The Liturgy of the Eucharist

Today’s Scripture Readings remind us of what Jesus has done for us. Jesus speaks to us through the Sacred Scriptures.

We must be open to listen and hear His words and be reverent on our faith journey home to the God who loves us. It was through prayer and the Eucharist that the disciples encountered Christ on the road to Emmaus. We pray, “Lord show us the path of life.” It is in Christ’s word and sacrament that we encounter Christ.

Reflective Questions: In what way did I hear Jesus speaking to me in today’s Scripture Readings? What does He want me to do?

Children’s/Family Mass and Crowning of our Blessed Mother, Sunday, May 7 at the 9:30 a.m. Mass. The month of May is traditionally dedicated to Mary in many cultures.

Registration forms have been mailed out to registered families in the program. Registration forms for incoming first graders or families new to the area may be obtained from the Religious Education Office (at the school 769-0030 x 123), from the Rectory Office or in the vestibule of the Church. Please include a copy of the child’s Baptismal Certificate for new and first grade children.

We are still in need of practicing Catholics that have received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). Please consider volunteering for the afternoon sessions of the 2017-2018 Religious Education school year (September-May) on Wednesdays for grade 6 and on Thursdays for grade 5 from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Please email us at the Religious Education office, hrrreligioused@live.com, or call 769-0030 x 123/124.
