Anointing is NOT reserved for near death only. It is available for anyone who has a condition that may be life threatening down the line, it is available for the frail elderly, it is available for anyone who is about to undergo a serious operation. Please come if you are in this category of health.

THANK YOU!

Every so often but not often enough we need to say "thanks for what you do!" Who comes to mind right now are two fantastic women. Jeannie Finn opens the church every weekday morning and sets up for Mass. Evelyn Buonanno is no stranger to hard labor. She is the only regular woman on the Parish Buildings and Grounds Committee. She is painting, waxing, sawing, repairing, improving, cleaning anything she can get her hands on. We are so blessed to have great people working for God's glory and the well being of our parish.
