CHRIST IS RISEN, ALLELUIA!

This day stands at the very center of the liturgical year and our Christian lives year after year. Today, the Lord Jesus breaks the chains of sin and death. As He breaks those bonds and rises from the dead, He becomes the everlasting sign of the promise of new life for us. There is cause for tremendous celebration here, which is why the Church gives us fifty days - the entire Easter Season - to savor these Mysteries. As the Sacred Word of God is proclaimed today, let us ask the Lord Jesus, Our Redeemer and Friend, to walk with us in the days ahead as we praise and thank God for the gift of salvation and the promise of everlasting life.
