PARISH COUNCIL

FYI, JUNE 3RD AT 7PM IN COMMUNITY ROOM IS THE DATE FOR PARISH COUNCIL IN JUNE. CHANGED FROM 6/9.

~ Not As Orphans ~

Today's readings find us poised in waiting with the Apostles. Remember last week's promise from Jesus? He said, "I will not leave you orphans."

The liturgy revisits that promise in today's Alleluia verse, because on this Sunday between the Ascension and Pentecost, the Apostles felt like orphans. In the first reading, from Acts, we find them all gathered in the upper room waiting and praying after they witnessed Christ's Ascension. In the second reading, Peter's letter continues, reminding us of our dignity as Christians.

Today's Gospel also takes place in that upper room on the night before Jesus died. Looking ahead to the time when He would no longer be with His followers on earth, Jesus prays for them and for all of us down through the ages.

Next weekend our second collection is our Maintenance & Repair collection. Please be as generous as your means allow. Thank you.
