Welcome Father Alex Ebo

He is now here to help minister in our parish for the summer. Don't be shy. Say hello and even invite him over. He is at extension #121.

AIR CONDITION SEASON

Someone may feel too cold in the Church. If that is the case check to see where you are sitting. The ceiling is low in the back of the Church, so the blowers are just above your head. Move to the front of the Church where the ceiling is high and the blowers don't bother anyone there.

REPORT ON CELEBRATION OF INDIAN CULTURE AT HOLY ROSARY

Last Saturday, 150 people of the Indian culture celebrated Mass in the Syro-Malabar Rite and then we all retired to the Main Café for a dinner of Indian foods. Delicious! Fr. Jos Kanoathikdy was the main celebrant and Monsignor con-celebrated. There were also Catholics who celebrated the Syro-Malankara Rite. We Americans are so used to the Roman Rite that we are not knowledgeable of the 23 other liturgical Rites in the Catholic Church.

DISCOVER CAMP

Please know that this is the 13th year Discover Camp is renting our school building and fields for the summer. They are now in full swing and have grown over the years. They have over 400 campers and 100 staff members coming every day. They are great tenants who actually improve our facilities while they use them. Besides paying rent, they have painted rooms, restored our picnic benches and helped our Religious Education program create a new kindergarten room and helped relocate and equip our Religious Education Office with technology. With a few exceptions, we will have no parish activity conducted in the school building while the camp occupies it.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

One of the historically most respected ministries of the Catholic Church is that of Catechist. It is respected not only because a catechist transmits the Faith to the next generation but because it is directly linked to the salvation and the eternal life of those being taught. It is the high nature of this Call that makes the role of Catechist so well respected.

Opportunities at Holy Rosary are no longer available in our Sunday Session or Wednesday II session. However, opportunities still exist in our Wednesday I session for grades 2,3,5 and Thursday I session for grade 6.

Pick up a catechist application at the Rectory or the Religious Education Office.

Grade Themes:

2nd—The person of Jesus and the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist

3rd—An understanding of the universal Church and local Church
