2021 MASS INTENTIONS

Holy Rosary is accepting Mass intentions for the 2021 calendar year. Your intentions will only be accepted this year by mail or by dropping them in the collection. There will not be any "in person" intentions accepted this year at the Rectory due to the COVID-19 virus. Instructions are also posted on the Church website. Sorry for any confusion or inconvenience this may cause but this year has presented many challenges for everyone.

Thank you for your understanding.

FRAUD ALERT

It has come to our attention that emails have gone out under Father Sebastian's name soliciting money. PLEASE DO NOT RESPOND TO THESE EMAILS as they are being sent out by scammers.

If you receive any of these emails, please notify the Rectory and the Mount Pleasant Police Department.

THE GUARDIAN ANGEL SOCIETY

Everyone needs a guardian angel, especially in these times of isolation and anxiety. Many members of our parish are living alone with no one present in the home to check on their welfare.

Being alone does not mean that you are alone. Your Parish Family cares and would like to propose a new ministry, The Guardian Angel Society. If you would like a quick call or text message each day to check that you are well and to reaffirm that you are being thought of, please call Karen Pennington at 914-769-0637 or Nancy DeLorenzo at 914-769-7223.

The Rectory Office will be closed on Monday, October 12th, in observance of Columbus Day

WELCOME TO A NEW PROGRAM YEAR!

It has been wonderful to see so many returning families and meeting new families this year. Although this program year looks a little different from the past, we are delighted to have in-person as well as online family-based instruction this year.

SPECIAL THANKS!

We thank Father Sebastian for his leadership and guidance. To our families we thank them for their support and active role in the Faith formation of their children. Finally, a special thank you to our returning and new volunteers who generously donate their time to make the program possible.

Working together we will make this another great year!

Today's Readings

1st Reading Isaiah 25:6-10A

2nd Reading Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Gospel Matthew 22:1-14

1st Reading – On this mountain the LORD

of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines. On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples, the web that is woven over all nations; he will destroy death forever. The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from every face; the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken. On that day it will be said: "Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us! This is the LORD for whom we looked; let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!" For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain.

Responsorial Psalm – I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

2nd Reading – Brothers and sisters: I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance. In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress. My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel – Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen."
