TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading—Wisdom 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire; Whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed, for he shall find her sitting by his gate. For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence, and whoever for her sake keeps vigil shall quickly be free from care; because she makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her, and graciously appears to them in the ways, and meets them with all solicitude.

Responsorial Psalm – My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God

Second Reading—1 Thessalonian 4:13-18

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

Gospel- Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps continued . . .

are going out.' But the wise ones replied, 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.' While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

HOLY ROSARY CHRISTMAS PROJECT 2020

We would like to continue this annual event even during this very challenging year. Since we are unable to collect wrapped gifts for distribution, we ask that contributions of $25 gift cards to Amazon, Target or Walmart be donated in their place.

Amazon and Target gift cards are readily available online or at grocery stores and CVS. Target cards can also be purchased in Target stores. Walmart cards can only be purchased online or in the store. Gift cards from Sam's Club can also be used at Walmart.

These gift cards will be used to purchase items from the Christmas wish lists which we have used to create paper ornaments in past years. To date, 121 children ranging in age from infants to 16 have submitted their lists. Winter clothing, Barbie dolls, action figures, dinosaurs, toy cars, trains and trucks, art supplies and craft kits, Legos, board games, Roblox, basketballs and footballs, and Disney toys are some of the items they mention.

The gift cards can be dropped off in the collection baskets at mass, or to the rectory during normal business hours starting November 1st. Please place the card in an envelope and mark the outside "Christmas Project donation". Do not wrap them or use gift bags. Please return all donations by December 1st . Our committee members are also willing to accept donations at their homes if anyone prefers that option. Thank you for your continued generosity. The parishioners of Holy Rosary been providing these gifts to needy families in the South Bronx for more than 30 years. Please call Jerry Comerford at 747-2328 with any questions.
