INTERFAITH/COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Holy Rosary Church

This year Holy Rosary Church will be hosting the Thanksgiving/Community Interfaith Service which will be held on Monday, November 23rd at 7:30pm in our Church. Please come and share your faith with members of the surrounding community. All are welcome.

For all of you are children of the light and children of the day.
We are not of the night or of darkness.
Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do,
but let us stay alert and sober.

Today's readings continue the theme of preparing for the end of time. In today's parable, a man entrusts his talents to his servants, each receiving an amount according to his ability. Two of them use these talents to make more, while the third does nothing. Matthew's readers realized that this parable was an allusion to the end of time: the master (Jesus) came back (the second coming) after a long time (it was then forty or fifty years after His Resurrection) and settled accounts with the servants (the last judgment). A talent was a valuable coin worth at least one hundred denarii. A denarius was the daily wage for a laborer. So each servant, even the one with just one talent, was entrusted with a substantial sum. But only the first two are found to be good and faithful, worthy, working hard, bringing prosperity, and caring for the poor and needy. Paul assures the Thessalonians that they are worthy, "children of the light," trusted to stay sober and alert.

How are you using your talents to prove your worthiness during the daylight of your life?

TODAY'S READINGS

1st Reading – Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm –

Blessed are those who fear the Lord

2nd Reading – 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

Gospel – Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money. After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.'

His master said to him, 'Well done, my good continued . . . .

and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"
