WEDDING BANNS

II Jerrin Jacob & Chris Mary

Dear Parishioners,

As your Administrator, I invite you to prayerfully consider participating in this year's Cardinal Annual Stewardship Appeal, which promotes and makes possible the works of mercy across our great archdiocese, including:

- Much needed COVID-19 relief within the Archdiocese.
- Financial support to vulnerable parishes so that they can better serve the faithful through the sacraments and other local outreach programs.
- Catholic Charities and pastoral programs including the prison apostolate.
- The important work of evangelization, faith formation and educational programs which are essential if we are to positively change the world.
- The education of new priests who will help us grow in our faith and take care of the retired priests who have dedicated their lives to the communities.

To contribute towards this work of the Gospel, our parish family of 2,015 households is responsible for a goal of $101,000. If you have supported the Appeal in past years, thank you for your loyalty. If you have never supported the Appeal, I invite you to make a first-time gift of any size, so that this can truly be a parish-wide effort.

Thank you to those who have already made a gift in response to Cardinal Dolan's letter last month. If you have not yet participated, our Appeal Commitment Weekend will be held on March 7th. Kindly complete your pledge card online by visiting cardinalsappeal.org place it in the mail, or drop it in the offertory basket at Mass.

Thank you for the many sacrifices you make for our Parish and our Archdiocese. St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, pray for us!

With prayerful gratitude,
Reverend Sebastian Pandarathikudiyil, VC Administrator

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2ND

This Feast is about Jesus, the light of the world, who dispels the darkness of sin and death. That is why this is the day traditionally designated by the Church for the blessing of candles, hence the Feast's traditional name: "Candlemas." May the word of God proclaimed on the Feast of Candlemas inspire us to bring the light of Christ to a world longing for hope and peace.

Request for 2020 Contribution Statements

Anyone wishing a statement of their 2020 contributions, please call the Rectory. Thank you.

A special thank you to Ernie Carpentieri and the Carpentieri Family for their generous donation to our beautiful Christmas altar flowers. Their name was inadvertently left off last week's list of altar flower donors.

Thank you also to Hawthorne Funeral Home and Beecher Flocks Funeral Home for the Catholic Family Appointment Calendars they provided.

THE PARISH HAS A NEW FACEBOOK PAGE FOR LIVESTREAMING MASSES!

The 5:00pm Saturday Vigil Mass and the 7:30am Sunday Mass are livestreamed each week.

All livestream recordings will remain available for you to view, at your convenience, any time of the day. You do NOT have to have a Facebook account to watch.

To go to our Facebook Live page.

READINGS . . .

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading – Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the LORD, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let us not again hear the voice of the LORD, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.' And the LORD said to me, 'This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.'"

Responsorial Psalm

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD;
let us acclaim the rock of our salvation.
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
For he is our God,
and we are the people he shepherds,
the flock he guides.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice:
"Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the desert,
Where your fathers tempted me;
they tested me though they had seen my works."

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

2nd Reading – 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties. An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But a married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. A married woman, on the other hand, is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction.

Gospel – Mark 1:21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.
