

Newsletter from April 6th

Palm Sunday Quarantine greetings to you,

Hopefully you have gotten out for a little fresh air. It is really hard not to with the beautiful days we have had.

As we embark on the holiest week of the year in our Church, I hope you will take time to remember our Lord's Passion, crucifixion and resurrection within your own home.

Know that we will maintain the same school schedule during this time of online learning. Our plan originally was that Holy Thursday would not be an instructional day, but rather one to recognize The Last Supper and reflection. I have asked teachers not to post any assignments during the Pascal Triduum and Easter Monday. Instruction will resume on Tuesday, 14 April 2020.

For those of you seeking to honor the precepts of the Church, drive up confessions are available at Immaculate Conception. Confession this week are: Tuesday 11:00 -11:45 am, Thursday 11:00-11:45am.

Progress reports are scheduled to be emailed to you after Easter. So if your student has not turned in some assignments, please encourage them to complete and submit them. Some teachers are mailing out weekly progress reports, so you may be receiving a duplicate progress report.

If you have not completed your registration online through Sycamore for 2020-2021, instructions can be found on the homepage.

Please log on to Sycamore for information on the following:

Catholic Award for Teachers

Fundraising updates

Coding Resources

TWIN-CS

I hope you are all safe and healthy. Please continue to pray for our school, city, state, nation and world. I too, am praying for all of you. God bless you! Now go wash your hands.

May His peace be yours,

R. Maestas-Sanchez, St. Mary's Albuquerque, Principal
