

Good morning,

For remote learners, your class zoom link for Tuesday was emailed to you Monday afternoon. It is for Tuesday only. I had a change of plans. Each day I will email you a new link for the next day. The Morning Assembly link you will find under News on the homepage of the Holy Family website. Remember that Morning Assembly starts at 8:15 and classes start at 8:30. Start to log in for your classes right after morning assembly ends. You all have access to your Holy Family gmail accounts, which is where my email was sent (the hfsny.org one that was created in the spring).

Quizzes for the week:

Math – Quiz Tuesday on Module 1 Lesson 1

ELA – Writing Assignment on “Empty Sky” will be turned in on Tuesday and used as a quiz grade. It was to be finished yesterday.

Remember to look at the class pages of your other teachers as well.

DreamBox – Class Code is 30497

School Code is bsz5aze9

School url (which is used for most devices you are working on) is:

play.dreambox.com/login/bsz5/aze9

Have a good week.

Ms. Finnegan
