To be clear: Catholics cannot provide, support or encourage abortion. Catholic political leaders have a serious obligation in this matter. Abortion is sinful; it is immoral. It destroys life and exploits women. Disciples of Christ do not support abortion. Period.

Bishop Thomas J. Tobin

QUO VADIS DAYS—Tradition tells us that St. Peter put this question to Jesus (“Domine, quo vadis?” Latin for “Where are you going?”) as Peter was making his way out of Rome to escape persecution. Jesus responded, “I’m going back to Rome to be crucified again in your place.” Peter turned around and remained in the city until he was martyred for his faith in Christ. These days will give us time to reflect on that question in our own lives: Where am I going? We will explore that question through prayer, fraternity, recreation, and talks on discernment.

St. Anthony belonged to the Franciscan order and died on June 13, 1231 in Italy. St. Anthony was most the celebrated of St. Francis of Assisi’s followers and had the reputation of a miracle worker. On January 16, 1946, Pope Pius XII declared him a doctor of the church.

Hidden Treasure of the Community

We are so lucky to have a community library in Sunset that every person can enjoy. No matter the age, gender, interest, talent or ability—there is a unique spot for you at the library on Marie Street. Pick up a schedule of events for adults and children at the front desk. A library card is the key to discovery and it costs nothing. Learn artistic crafts, attend classes, speak a foreign language, garden for health. ACT practice, contests, computer skills, join clubs, meet friends, little theater; satisfy your curiosity! It’s time to discover what others have found at the library.

RECONCILED DIVERSITY

A few years ago, during Rome's quiet summer, Pope Francis took a day off to visit privately with some old friends, whose identity took Catholic Italy by surprise: Evangelical Protestants. They welcomed Francis to their Pentecostal Church of Reconciliation, where Francis asked pardon for Catholic persecutions and celebrated the Holy Spirit's "pentecostal work." Unlike Satan, declared Francis, who creates division among God's children, the Holy Spirit creates a diversity rich and beautiful. And unity; not uniformity, Francis specified, but unity in diversity. Francis named the Spirit's gift "reconciled diversity." Pentecost's rich treasury of scriptural readings, for Saturday's vigil and Sunday's morning liturgy, traces the Holy Spirit's work from creation's beginning, through Jesus' resurrection, into the church's earliest days, now into our days. Kindled in our hearts, the Spirit's gentle fire is ours to share generously, even with those most strikingly different from us. All hearts are Spirit-warmed by reconciled diversity.
