Vocation Prayer Cross

This week we are grateful to Sybil Charlot & family who will be receiving the Vocation Prayer Cross at the 9:00 am Mass and praying each day for vocations. May their prayers bear much fruit!

This Sunday at our 10:30 Mass Fr. James Page, S.J., who was ordained on June 12th, will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus: Friday Adoration and Thursday Holy Hour of Reparation

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every Friday from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm in the South Transept (cry room). Contact Deacon David Menard to sign-up for a regular weekly time commitment: menard@st-charles-borromeo.org.

Holy Hour of Reparation at 7:00 pm. each Thursday to accommodate working families and to more closely correspond to Our Lord's request to St. Margaret Mary that on Thursday night she keep company with Him at the hour of His agony in the garden.

Please, consider spending one hour in adoration of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament out of love and gratitude to Him and in reparation for all the sins of ingratitude, forgetfulness, and rejection that He endures in our world today.

Thanks to those who have committed to spending an hour with the Lord. The Rites for Holy Communion and Worship of the Holy Eucharist Outside of Mass, issued by the Congregation for Divine Worship in 1973, mentions the two-person norm, but I know we can do better. The one o'clock hour has only one committed adorer listed. It would be ideal to have at least four committed adorers to each hour. In case of emergencies, we are guaranteed to have enough adorers for each hour. Please advise if you are available as a substitute. Deacon David

A Prayer for Fathers on Father's Day

Almighty God, you are the giver and the protector of all human life. You have blessed the fathers of our community and given them the joyful responsibility of their family.

On this Father's Day, accept our praise and in your goodness hear the prayers we make for our fathers:

Guard them from all harm evil, accompany them always in their journey through this life, and when it is time, bring our fathers to the joys of your eternal kingdom.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord. Amen

CURRENT HOME-GROWN VOCATIONS:

We would like to put together a list of current diocesan and religious vocations (priests, deacons, religious brothers and sisters) who are from St. Charles Church or Christ the King Mission Parish. If you have a family member or know of any other vocations from our parish, please contact Cathy Taylor at 337-280-9062 or email her at tandemtaylor@yahoo.com

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

Next week we will take up the Peter’s Pence Collection, which is a way to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis with the funds to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.peterspence.va/en.html.

Beginning July 1st, we will begin issuing church envelopes every two months. In the envelope packet there will be an envelope included in every other mailing, one for Bishop’s Services Appeal and one for St. Ignatius School to be used if you wish to make a contribution.
