SHARE YOUR FAITH BY SUPPORTING THE WORK OF THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA

Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection, which strengthens the faith of our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean. Your gifts help in by providing funding to help educate priests, religious, and lay pastoral leaders, assisting missionaries and pastoral workers, training catechists and youth ministers. Your support helps to bring the faith to those in remote villages, who would otherwise have no access to church programs and outreach.

You may "SHARE YOUR FAITH" by placing your donation (gift) in the specially marked envelope found in your contribution packets. Make checks payable to: Holy Family. Drop in collection basket at offertory at any weekend mass.

An interesting read!

JAMES BACIK*; FOREWORD BY MARTIN MARTY

POPE FRANCIS AND HIS CRITICS

Historical and Theological Perspectives

Pope Francis and his Critics offers a broad assessment of Francis and his pontificate, keeping in mind important criticisms mounted by his detractors. An opening chapter summarizes a representative sampling of five-year evaluations of the Francis papacy. Subsequent chapters take up views of the first Latin American pope as well as his critics on specific topics: gender issues, work and business, consumerism, caring for the poor, liturgy, communion for divorced and remarried, and clergy sex abuse.

A distinctive feature of this book is a careful analysis of the recent book, To Change the Church, by Ross Douthat, which has received much attention in the religious and secular world.

*JAMES BACIK is a priest of the Diocese of Toledo, OH. He served in university parishes for over 40 years. He holds a doctorate in theology from the University of Oxford.

If any persons are interested in purchasing this book please let us know. Currently the book lists @ $14.95 for a single copy. However, percentage discounts are available for multiple copies. You can let us know if you are interested in a copy by signing up in the church vestibule.
