Since last Sunday's mass was canceled due to inclement weather I have reprinted a much scaled down version of an important article.

I have learned that there are some persons in our parish that the pandemic has really put them in a very precarious situation and are very much in need of kind words and cheering up to help them get through this pandemic.

If anyone would like to send a "kind word" or a "thinking of you" card to help them get through this pandemic time, please contact me at the rectory (starting Monday, Feb 1st), as I have a list of parishioner's names and addresses who would love to hear from you!

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

02/7/21

Psalm 95 (94):6-7

O come, let us worship God
and bow low before the God who made us,
for he is the Lord our God.

Introduction to the liturgy of the Day

We come together each Sunday a needy people, a damaged people, a human people, each of us coming to realize that we cannot make it on our own. But we are faith filled people, trusting in the Lord, our Savior, our Redeemer, whom we know is here with us as we gather together. Buoyed by that knowledge, we celebrate the Eucharist today with our sisters and brothers, giving thanks to God, receiving our Lord in his body, and going forth to others renewed and rejuvenated in our mission as disciples.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Job 7:-4, 6-7

I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.

Psalm 147

"Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted."

1Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel..

Mark 1:29-39

Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases.

In ten days lent will begin and we will be reminded of Jesus' sufferings, from forty days in the desert to his passion and death, but today we hear or read the tragedies that have come to define his life. His sufferings are, to him, incomprehensible. He has lost all hope. The psalmist reassures us that the Lord heals the wounded and broken hearted. Paul willingly embraces his difficulties for the gospel. Jesus places the healing of the sick and troubled at the heart of his ministry. As we listen or read today's readings, let us look for hope in the Lord.

How do I serve God and serve my neighbor?
Will I commit to doing all I can?

Annual Catholic Appeal begins this Weekend.

A letter from Bishop Thomas is being sent to you, asking for your gift and/or pledge to support the ministries of the Diocese of Toledo. This letter gives all registered parishioners an opportunity to contribute to the Appeal, especially those who are unable to attend Mass. The Annual Catholic Appeal will be successful if every member of our parish carefully considers their circumstances and truly strives to give a significant gift. Please give prayerful consideration to your level of support to help fund the essential ministries and services supported by the Appeal, continuing to make our parish and our diocese a place Where Charity & Love Prevail. To learn more about the appeal, visit <https://www.acatoledo.org/>
