Fourth Sunday of Lent

3/14/21

John 3:16

God so loved the world
that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him
might have eternal life.

Introduction to the liturgy of the Day

Even during lent we remain a joyful people, for we believe that God loves us despite our sinfulness, loves us so much that Jesus Christ sacrificed himself so that we might be redeemed and born into eternal life. Today on Laetare ("Rejoice") Sunday, we anticipate the joy we will feel on Easter. Let us give thanks to God for the grace and mercy we have regularly received and trust we will continue to receive throughout our lives.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23

The wrath and the mercy of the Lord are revealed in the exile and liberation of his people.

Psalms 137 " *Let my tongue be silenced,
if I ever forget you!*"

Ephesians 2:4-10 Though dead in your transgressions, by grace you have been saved.

John 3:14-21 God sent his Son into the world so that the world might be saved through him.

The readings today begin with a chronicle of the downfall of Judah, though it does have a note of hope at the end. Saint Paul teaches the Ephesians that Jesus Christ is proof positive of God's rich mercy. In the Gospel Jesus tells Nicodemus that he will be lifted up by his Father, bringing eternal life to all who believe. God's unending love is a source of hope, mercy, and life. Let us rejoice!

Question of the Week

How does the undeserved mercy God shows me inform the way I treat those who have wronged me or those whom I see as sinners?
