Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

We have responded to the call of the Lord by gathering together in this holy place to worship God, to listen to the Word, and to share in the Eucharist. When we leave, we are asked to go forth as changed persons, nourished by Lord so that we can witness to our faith outside these four walls. In today's Gospel, Jesus sent his disciples out to carry on his mission, empowering them with his authority. In baptism, we have been empowered by Christ to carry on his mission as well. May today's celebration inspire us to renew our commitment to the Christian mission.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Amos 7:12-15 Go, prophesy to my people.

Psalms 85 "Lord, let us see your kindness and grant us your salvation."

Ephesians 1:3-14 or 1:3-10

God chose us in Christ, before the foundation of the world.

Mark 6:7-13 He began to send them out.

 From Amos to the twelve disciples, God calls people of faith to serve others. Amos, a Shepherd and horticulturist, was called to prophesy to Israel instead. Saint Paul was called to bring Christ's message to Gentiles all around the world. The twelve were sent by Jesus in pairs to heal the sick and drive out demons. As we listen or read today's readings let us consider how we are called by God to give witness to the gospel.

 Talk about traveling light: no change of clothes, no food, no bag, and no money. But what they brought was much greater. They brought the authority to drive out evil and to heal the sick. By not being dependent on material things, they could place their dependence on God. God gave them the authority they needed to carry out their mission and obviously that was enough, for their mission was successful. Let us not concentrate on what we don't have, but on what we do have, which Paul beautifully details: adoption as a child of God, redemption by Christ's blood, a share in god's glory forever.

Question of the Week

 Can I recall a time when I was provided what I needed to bring God's blessings to others?
 Can I trust in God
 whenever I feel Inadequate?
