Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

"The whole is greater than the sum of its parts," we hear from time to time, meaning that a collection of things put together can be greater than what would be expected when each is alone. Today we hear two accounts of times when seemingly inadequate number of loaves of bread provided plenty for a huge crowd to eat. We hope to exemplify the same saying when we join together as church. Separately, we may feel inadequate to carry on the mission of Jesus. But together we form the body of Christ, capable of building the kingdom here on earth. Joining together today to be nourished in the Eucharist, let us dream of how together we can change the world.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

2 Kings 4:42-44 - They shall eat and there shall be some left over.

Psalms 145 - "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs"

Ephesians 4:1-6 - One body, one Lord, one faith, one baptism.

John 6:1-15 - He distributed as much as they wanted to those who were reclining.

In the first reading, Elisha takes an offering of barley loaves and shares it with many more people than it would be expected to feed. All ate plenty and some was even left over. In the Gospel, Jesus takes 5 barley loaves and two fish and is able to share them with over five thousand people. All ate their fill, and twelve baskets were filled with the leftovers. God is able to provide more than we need, despite all appearance to the contrary. As we sing in the psalm today, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs."

In baptism we were called to put on Christ and so like Christ we are called to feed the hungry. Many are hungry because they are poor, unable to afford to consistently feed themselves or their families. Many more go hungry because they live in places where entire communities have no access to enough food prevent malnutrition. Experts tell us that there exists enough food in the world so that no one - not a single one of the world's almost eight billion people - need go hungry. Jesus was able to find a way to provide food for thousands by sharing what one person had and distributing it as far as it would stretch. Putting on Christ, we are called to find a way to share our plenty as far as it will go.
