Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

When we come together today, as we do each Sunday, we receive the Lord -- the Bread of life -- in the Eucharist. He satisfies our hunger be it material or spiritual. When we receive the Lord, in the Eucharist and in our hearts, he brings fullness, mission, God's grace, and the promise of everlasting life into our poor, imperfect, and needy human lives. He enables us to "put away the "old self" and put on the new self." Joined together with our brothers and sisters in faith, let us celebrate the generosity of our Lord.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

- Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15 I will rain down bread from heaven for you.
- Psalms 78 - "The Lord gave them bread from heaven."
- Ephesians 4:17, 20-24 - Put on a new self that has been created in God's way.
- John 6:24-35 - Who ever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.

 We hear Jesus today tell the crowds that he is the bread of life, that those who look to him will never hunger or thirst. Before that, we hear the Lord satisfy the hunger of the Chosen People when they were starving in the desert. In between, Saint Paul challenges us to change from our old self and "put on (our) new self" now that we have learned the truth in Jesus. Let us reflect on how God satisfies our hunger.

 We have a huge advantage over both the crowd in the desert and the one in Capernaum. We know the ending. The Israelites make it to the Promised Land. The Bread of life is the food of our redemption. Today when we are faced with an uncertain future and problems that appear to be unsolvable, let us take comfort in knowing that God continues to watch over us, forever satisfying our hunger and thirst.

Question of the Week

How can I be a sign to others of the nourishment I've found in the bread of life?

ACA update (Annual Catholic Appeal)

Week # 23 - Our stats are as follows:
 We have gifted or pledged $4995.00 which is 80.42 % of our goal of $6211.00 (set by the Toledo dioceses). So far we have had 40 participants. Please note that we receive back 50% of all funds over our goal once it has been reached. There is still time to reach our goal. Can't find your pledge card and want to participate! - Call the parish office.
