2021 CCD Classes

We have decided to delay the start up of these classes due to increasing spread of the Delta Covid Virus situation. We are also discussing various options to provide our CCD students with some sort of interim learning possibilities.

Providing a safe environment for all parishioners is one of the most critical elements of our ministry.

The Catholic University of America

Support of the National Collection not only provides critical support to students but also it helps the University serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research initiatives and training programs, such as The Catholic Project — an initiative that brings together clergy and laity to address the challenges that the Catholic Church faces in the U.S. contributing education, formation, research, events, and media, a master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers. The envelope found in your contribution packet provides you the opportunity to support the CUA's critical work which improves the Church and the nation.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

9/12/21

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.
cf. Sirach 36:18

Liturgy of the Day

Often we hear what we want to hear, not what we need to hear. It's only human; even Saint Peter showed this tendency. When Jesus told his disciples that he would suffer and be killed, Peter immediately drew him aside and criticized him. Not only did Jesus rebuke him, he told the crowd that everyone who follows him must suffer as well, must willingly take up their cross. Let us pray for the courage to take up our crosses, comforted with the knowledge that God always accompanies us in our struggles.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Isaiah 50:4c-9a I gave my back to those who beat me.

Psalms 116 "I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living"

James 2:14-18 Faith if it does not have works, is dead.

Mark 8:27-35 You are the Christ . . . The Son of Man must suffer greatly.

 Living the disciple's life is not easy. Isaiah is proud to serve the LORD, but it's been difficult. Facing opposition and abuse, he relies on God's help. James preaches that faith obligates us to do good, to actually act on our beliefs. Jesus tells the crowd that whoever follows him must take up his or her cross. After listening or reading today's readings, let us reflect on how our faith both challenges us to do more and comforts us as we act in the Lord's name.

Providing a safe environment for all parishioners is one of the most critical elements of our ministry. Due to the increasing spread of the Delta Covid Virus in Wood County and surrounding area we are inviting you to wear a facial mask while attending Mass here at Holy Family until further notice. Masks are available in the church vestibule.
