May the Lord welcome them with open arms and embrace those who mourn for them with consolation and peace.

Lord hear our prayer.

The Advent season will soon be upon us (Sunday, 11/28). Many of our homebound friends view this with some level of dread and anxiety and this is perhaps accentuated by the upheaval caused by the pandemic. For some, it's almost too much. If you want to connect with those in our parish family who are homebound, pick up the list of names and addresses found in the church vestibule or contact the parish office.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

Today we recognize Jesus' role as the Lord of all, the leader of all humanity, the king of the eternal heavenly kingdom. To his followers, Jesus referred to this kingdom as the kingdom of God or his Father's Kingdom, but through his ultimate act of self sacrifice he became the first born of this kingdom, ready to show us the way. Let us open our hearts to the truth, which continues to be revealed by Christ the King.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading is from the Book of the Prophet Daniel 7:13-14 The dominion of the Son of man is an everlasting domination.

Psalm 93 "The Lord is King; his robed in majesty.

The Second Reading is from the Book of Revelation 1:5-8 The ruler of the kings of the earth has made us into a kingdom, priest for his God and Father.

The Gospel, John 18:33b-37 You say I am a King.

~~~~~
 Throughout history Jesus Christ has been acknowledged as king. Even before he was born to Mary, Daniel prophesied that one like a Son of man would come from heaven to earth and be regarded as King and Lord. The author of Revelation calls him the faithful witness of the kingdom. In the Gospel we hear him witness to the kingdom in front of Pilate. That scene gives us an insight into his kingship, which is anchored in the truth, and to which he testified during his entire time on earth. Let us open our hearts to the truth, which continues to be revealed by Christ the king.

Deshler ICC will have 8:30 am
 Thanksgiving Day Mass on Thursday,
 November 25th.

Nov. 28th is the First Sunday of Advent!
 The little blue books will again be available to help in your preparations for the coming of the Lord!

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development

This weekend begins the collection to support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

You may support this collection by using the CCHD pre-marked envelope found in your contribution packets. Just place your gift the envelope, and then drop in the collection basket at offertory at any weekend mass. Please, make checks payable to "Holy Family".
