

Sacred Heart Catholic Church

Sunday of Divine Mercy ~ April 19, 2020

Reflections from the Stewardship Office

After the resurrection of Jesus, the disciples and newly converted Christians formed small communities and lived as Jesus taught. As Missionary Disciples in the world today, we can look to them as examples. We, too, are called to live the “communal life,” sharing with one another, breaking bread together, and meeting together in worship. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, as many people are confined to their homes, let’s consider ways we can still live a “communal life.” What are some tangible ways we can do this right now? Can you share non-perishable food items with someone in need? Can you use technology to pray with someone? Remember, you have been Empowered by the Holy Spirit, in all situations, to act as a disciple. Be creative and be intentional as you do so!

Looking ahead - Following Christ coming Fall 2020

Sacred Heart Evangelization Team is pleased to bring Following Christ to the parish this fall! Following Christ is a series dedicated to helping you become a more intentional disciple of Christ, by growing in friendship with God. The course focuses on prayer, learning the habits of discipleship, and building up Christ-centered friendships and accountability.

Didn't make it to Discovering Christ? No problem! Join us for Following Christ anyway. Participants from our parish said of the program:

"It strengthened my love for Jesus and the Church's love for me."

"It opened my eyes to everyday encounters with Jesus and prayer."

"It had a very strong and lasting impact with Jesus in my life. The relationship I have seen others have with Jesus has impacted me as well."

19 de Abril 2020

Después de la Resurrección de Jesús, los discípulos y los Cristianos recién convertidos, formaron comunidades pequeñas y vivieron como Jesús les enseñó. Como Discípulos Misioneros del mundo actual, podemos verlos a ellos como ejemplo. Nosotros también estamos llamados a vivir una “vida en comunidad”, compartiendo los unos con los otros, partiendo los panes juntos y reuniéndonos en adoración. En este Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, mientras mucha gente está confinada en sus hogares, consideremos maneras de seguir viviendo una “vida en comunidad”. ¿Cuáles son algunas maneras tangibles que podemos utilizar en estos momentos? ¿Pueden donar comida no perecedera con alguien en necesidad? ¿Pueden utilizar la tecnología para orar con alguien? Recuerden, ustedes han sido fortalecidos por el Espíritu Santo en toda situación para que actúen como discípulos. Sean creativos y háganlo con toda la intención.

Clases del Bautismo en español: Las clases pre-bautismales son obligatorias para todos los padres y padrinos. La clase dura una hora y está en la oficina de la parroquia (302 S B Street).

La próxima clase será el a las 7 pm
