

Name: _____

Test Chapter 6

A Circle the letter of the best answer.

1. ____, the set of laws delivered by Moses to the Israelites, guides our behavior in everyday life.
 - a. The New Testament
 - b. The Gospel
 - c. The Good News
 - d. The Ten Commandments
2. The pattern of events in human history through which God makes his presence and his saving actions known to us is called ____.
 - a. a covenant
 - b. salvation history
 - c. the Old Testament
 - d. creation
3. God's greatest act of salvation was ____.
 - a. becoming one of us through Jesus, the Son of God
 - b. promising that the earth would never again be destroyed by flood
 - c. revealing the Ten Commandments
 - d. leading the Israelites across the Red Sea
4. In God's covenant with Abraham, Abraham vows to be faithful to God after God promises to ____.
 - a. send him great wealth
 - b. make his name famous
 - c. give him land and descendants
 - d. protect him from enemies

B Complete the following sentences.

5. _____, one of the most important Israelites, led his people out of slavery in Egypt.
6. Despite their sins, God still promised _____ to his people.
7. During the Easter Vigil, we welcome new members into the Church and _____.
8. Jesus gave _____ power to carry on his mission.

C Respond to the following.

Provide two examples of God's saving actions throughout history. What do these actions show about the relationship God wants to have with us?
