

Mary Garton Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the Garton family to honor the memory of their daughter/sister, Mary Garton, a former English teacher at Elyria Catholic High School. Although Miss Garton passed away in 1994, this scholarship has kept her memory alive in the halls of Elyria Catholic High School

Criteria

- Applicant must be applying as a freshman at Elyria Catholic.
- Applicant must demonstrate financial need via a FACTS Grant & Aid Application.

Award

- Four incoming freshmen will receive $1,400 to their tuition for the freshman year.

Please type and attach an essay, 300-500 words, double spaced about a piece of literature that has had an impact on your life. Pick a book that made you laugh/cry, or changed the way that you think about something.

- Summarize the story in a paragraph.
- In the second paragraph, tell why the book made you feel this way.
