WORD OF GRATITUDE

Dear Parishioners

Greetings and Peace from Fr. David MMI, I am very much thankful to Fr. Joselin and all of you in the parish for having given me great opportunity to be with you for a month. I was indeed happy here. At this time I remember what Peter said at the time of transfiguration. Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.” I too say how nice it is to be in Yulan with people of good will.

At the moment I am not sure of my future in Sullivan County. I am sure after few months I will be given parish in Sullivan County. Wherever I go, I will not forget your love and concern. My first experience in States is with you. As I mentioned in previous bulletin, you changed my idea about America. I just started to prepare a small garden at the backyard of the house. You brought me seed, plants and manure and above all you made a fence around it. You have been helpful to me in all the ways possible. I love you all.

Fr. Antony David MMI

READINGS OF NINETEENTH SUNDAY

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a After fleeing from the revenge of the King of Israel, Elijah hid in a cave, but at the command of God, he went outside and stood on a mountain. There the Lord came to him, not in the wind nor in the earthquake, but in a “tiny whispering sound.”

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5 Paul is deeply pained because the Jews – in spite of everything that has been given to them – have rejected Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33 Matthew vividly recounts the event of Jesus walking on the water. When the disciples see this, they are terrified, and Jesus chastises them for their fear. Peter begs Christ to let him walk on the water; he is at first brave but begins to sink and loses faith, crying out, “Lord save me!” Christ rescues him for his faltering faith.
