TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 2:18-24

God created many different animals in an attempt to make a suitable partner for the first man. Then he took a rib from the man as he slept and built it up into a woman. At last God had created someone who equaled the man, as she was "bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh" and they proved to be suitable partners for each other.

Second Reading: Hebrews 2:9-11

This passage describes how Jesus will become perfect through his suffering. It also reminds us that Jesus' Father is our as well, making him unashamed to call us his brothers and sisters.

Gospel: Mark 10:2-16

The people began to ask Jesus if it was acceptable for a man to divorce his wife. Jesus tells them that two people who have been joined together by God should not be separated. People began bringing their children to Jesus, but the disciples tried to send them away. Jesus grew angry and told his disciples to allow the children to come to him.

MESSAGE FROM CARDINAL DOLAN...

Dear Friends in the Lord, Peace be with you in the name of Christ!

One of the most courageous people in the Bible was our Blessed Mother. An angel appeared to her when she was a teenager and asked her to bear a child, the Savior of the world. It's unimaginable! But even more astounding was that she had the courage to boldly say "Yes!" to God.

On October 20, our own beloved teenagers from the Archdiocese of New York are invited to Be Bold and embrace what God has in store for them at the 6th annual New York Catholic Youth Day. As the angel Gabriel said to Mary, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God," in turn we tell our young people to trust that God has a plan for their lives.

Our Office of Youth Ministry has planned a day at the Westchester County Center that invites youth to connect to the Lord and to one another through engaging talks, lively music, service projects, and the sacraments. I would like to invite you to think of the high school aged young people in your life—children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews, neighbors, students—who would benefit from a day like this. I would like to meet them on October 20!

Details and registration information for youth leaders can be found here at oymny.org/nycyd. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Youth Ministry at youthministry@archny.org or 914-367-8329.

Be Bold and encourage the young people in your life to attend New York Catholic Youth Day!

With prayerful best wishes, may I remain,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

Archbishop of New York

PLEASE NOTE

If a Mass is being said for a member of your family on Saturday evening or Sunday, it would be most fitting if someone from the family would bring up the gifts at the Offertory. Please let one of the ushers know before Mass.

VISITS TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

Please contact the rectory if you know of anyone who is sick at home or in the hospital and or homebound who would like a visit from the priest at St. Anthony of Padua and St. Thomas Aquinas Church. Please call 845-557-8512 or email churchofstanthony@gmail.com

ROSARY RALLY
