THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16

Elijah asked a widow for a cup of water and a piece of bread. She told him she was almost out of flour, and that she and her son would soon starve. Elijah told her not to be afraid, as God had told him the jar of flour would not go empty. So she did as he had asked and prepared bread from the last of her flour. As God had said, her jar did not go empty, and she and her son had plenty to eat.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28

The high priests entered the sanctuary each year and offered a sacrifice, but not a sacrifice of their own blood. Jesus as people die once and are judged, Christ was offered up once for the sins of many.

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

Jesus expressed disgust over the hypocrisy of some of the scribes for wanting special treatment from the people. He watched the wealthy put large contributions into the collection box, but explained that what they gave was surplus wealth, and not a real sacrifice. He told them the biggest donation was a small amount from a widow, because she had given up the only money that she had to live on.

PLEASE NOTE

If a Mass is being said for a member of your family on Saturday evening or Sunday, it would be most fitting if someone from the family would bring up the gifts at the Offertory. Please let one of the ushers know before Mass.

MASS BOOK 2019 IS OPEN

Mass Book for 2019 is open. If anyone is willing to offer mass for your loved ones, both living and deceased, please fill the form kept at the back of the Church and return it to the Rectory either by Mail or in person or put it in the collection basket.

We have an obligation and duty to pray for our loved ones by offering mass for them.

Prayer for Veterans

Help us, dear God, to see your face in every Veteran we encounter. Guide us as we imagine new ways to support Veterans and their families. Bring healing and peace to all who have been wounded physically, mentally and spiritually during wartime. Help us bring your saving grace to heal the invisible wounds of war. We ask this in Jesus' holy name. Amen.

CALENDAR 2019

Yearly calendar for 2019 is kept at the back of the church. Please take them as you go out of the church

For the Next two or three weekend until the painting work is over in the church we will have our Weekend mass in our Parish Center

Message from the Religious Education Coordinator

The Religious Education Program of St. Anthony of Padua Church will be putting on a special event to honor Veterans on November 11, 2018. I have asked the children in the program to personally invite a family friend who had served in the armed forces to attend 9.00 AM Mass. following Mass, we will have a meet and greet in the Parish Hall. The children will present the Veterans with cards and have a chance to ask questions about their service. I would like to extend this invitation to all Veterans who would like to attend that are members of our Church, Members of the Knights of Columbus, Members of the VFW, and local community members.

If you are planning on attending our Veterans Day service, please contact me by email at kezialabuda@gmail.com
Thank you and we look forward to meeting our local Veterans!
