THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15

Moses came upon a burning bush, when God called out to him. God told Moses that he had seen the suffering of his people in Egypt, and intended to lead them from their captors to a land of milk and honey. Moses asked what he should say if the Israelites should ask what God wished to be called. God replied, "I am who am."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

Paul describes how the people were led into the desert by Moses, yet many of them were struck down by God. He warns that this should serve as an example not to give in to wicked desires or we may suffer the same downfall.

Gospel: Luke 13:1-9

Jesus says that an individual's misfortune does not mean that their sins were greater than someone else's. He warns that without repenting, all sinners will meet the same end. He tells of a barren fig tree whose owner planned to cut it down. But a servant offered to give it special care for one year, and destroy it should it remain barren. This symbolizes God's patience toward us.

Message from Fr. Joselin...

My dear Brothers and Sisters,

After a warm vacation in India I got back to our Parish before two weeks and was welcomed with snow. After seeing the snow I realized I was not in India anymore. I had a nice time with my Religious Order Priests, Sisters and my Family members. I told everyone how my Parish Family loves me and takes care of me. Thank you for your love, constant support and encouragement. It was actually little sad to leave the loved ones behind but it is always for the best. When anyone asks me whether I feel sad to be away from my parents and the family, I tell them that I leave my little family to embrace the large parish family; that is you. I always feel at home here in our Parish. As I thank God for the beautiful Parish family, I too want to visit and bless all your houses before Easter. Next week in the bulletin I will be publishing the names of the people whom I am intending to visit in their houses next week and if anyone is not going to be in the house or you have different plans, please let me know in advance. I will give the details next week how I am planning to visit and when. Again, before I left to India, I was asking our Parishioners whether anyone is interested in becoming a Parish Council member and few people came forward to become one. Since we can't take everyone who is willing we took a vote in the last Parish Council and elected two new members. They are; Cathy Sweeney and Florence Horecky. A warm welcome to both of you and thank you for agreeing to be in the Parish Council.

God bless you

Fr. Joselin Pens Berkman
