TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7

The prophet Amos expressed disgust over people who take advantage of the poor. He describes businessmen scheming to cheat the poor, then declares that God will "never forget the things they have done."

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul urges the Christians to pray for all people, especially those in authority. Paul even asked them to pray for the kings who denounced Christ's teachings, because God wants all people to be saved through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a story about a servant who tries to cheat his employer. The owner is impressed because he would do the same thing himself. Jesus then describes the importance of being trustworthy in small matters, as well as in greater ones. He then states that no one can serve two masters faithfully, so people cannot give themselves completely to both God and money.

MESSAGE FROM FR. JOSELIN...

My dear Parishioners,
Every Sacrament is the visible sign of invisible grace. Whenever a Sacrament is celebrated in our Church, the Holy Spirit descends upon not only the candidates who receive it but on all who are present. Next Sunday, on 29th at 11.15 AM one of our Religious Education kids Dillon Besimer will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. And the Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered and the Mass will be celebrated by Most Rev. Bishop Dominick Laganegro. Please come and participate in the Mass at 11.15 AM on next Sunday and pray for Dillon Besimer and his Family. Thanks to our Religious Education teachers for preparing him to receive the Sacrament.

Like I wrote last week, I understand that the summer is getting close and we will soon enter into winter. Some of our Parishioners will be getting ready to go to Florida for winter. I want to bring it to all our Parishioner's kind attention that in the last year winter itself our expenses came about 70 thousand dollars but our income was less than 25 thousand dollars. So this year I would like to make an appeal to all of you for the betterment of our Parish because it is our Church and we need to make our Church go and grow. For that I was thinking of taking a special winter collection on the last weekend of this month on Saturday and Sunday, September 28th and 29th at all the Masses. Please be generous in making your contribution and make our Church feel warm in winter this year. There won't be any Second collection envelopes for this special winter collection but you can make your generous donation either by cash or by check. This is just an onetime special winter collection and hopefully this collection would help our church to cover oil bills for the forthcoming winter months. My prayers for all of you and my special wishes to all who will be leaving us to their place during this winter. Thank you for your generosity.

God bless you
Fr. Joselin

ALL CATHOLICS MUST BECOME MISSIONARIES- SAYS POPE FRANCIS

By virtue of their baptism, all Catholics are called to be missionaries, sharing the good news of salvation in Jesus by their actions and their words, Pope Francis said.

“The importance of renewing the Church’s missionary commitment and giving fresh evangelical impulse to her work of preaching and bringing to the world the salvation of Jesus Christ” is the focus of Francis’s message for World Mission Sunday Oct. 20 and for the special celebration in 2019 of October as “Missionary Month.”
