TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

Elisha cures Naaman of leprosy, which convinces Naaman that there is only one God. Naaman then asks to take some loads of soil from Israel, so that he can worship and make sacrifices to one true God on his own land.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Paul reminds Timothy that Christ rose from the dead so that many people could be saved. Paul was being treated as a criminal and kept in chains but says, "There is no chaining the word of God!" Paul also says, "if we die in Christ, we will live in him. But if we deny him, he will deny us."

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Jesus cures ten lepers, but only one returns to express gratitude for being healed. Jesus is disappointed that only one gave thanks to God, but tells that one, "Your faith has been your salvation."

PARISH STEWARDSHIP

MESSAGE FROM THE CARDINAL...

Dear friends in the Lord:

One hundred years ago, Pope Benedict XV wished to give new impetus to the missionary call to proclaim the Gospel. To mark this occasion, Pope Francis has called for the whole Church to observe an Extraordinary Missionary Month in October, which is World Mission month. Our archdiocesan family joins our brothers and sisters around the world who will gather at the altar to celebrate, with great joy, our common vocation as missionaries. Our prayers and financial help, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith support the work of the Mission Church, its witness to Christ and service to the poor.

The theme for the Extraordinary Missionary Month is "Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World." Pope Francis has indicated four dimensions or ways to prepare for and live out this month:

1. A personal encounter with Jesus Christ alive in His Church;
2. The witness of the Saints, the Missionary Martyrs, and the Confessors of Faith;
3. Biblical, catechetical, spiritual, and theological formation regarding the mission to the world;
4. Missionary charity as a material support for the immense work of evangelization.

I echo the sentiment of our Holy Father, asking you to open your hearts as you connect with World Mission Sunday in every corner of the globe.

As I write to you today, I ask you to consider a sacrificial gift to the annual appeal for world missions. It will be collected on the weekend of October 19 – 20. Your generous support will help the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to continue to spread the good news to the growing faith communities of our day. May it generate with us a renewed awareness of the need to proclaim the gospel to all corners of the world.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ

+Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

Archbishop of New York

NOTE: The Envelopes for the World Mission Sunday will be kept at the back of the Church. There won't be a second collection taken next weekend for the Mission Sunday, October 19 – 20 but all those who wish to do so can do it along with the First Collection.

FORMED.ORG

Formed.org is a huge Catholic Forum where we can have access to all kinds of Catholic Contents like Movies, Videos Audios, Books, etc... It is so nice of the Archdiocese to offer it for free for all Parishes who have 100 subscribers signed up. Presently we have 48 users. All I ask is to go to our Church website, press formed.org and that will take you to sign up page, once you enter your email, you are set. Next weekend Mass I will talk more about it and I too will be writing a note in the bulletin. God bless you!
