Dear Christ Our Savior Catholic Church Parishioners,

On behalf of the Archdiocese of Chicago, I regret to inform you of some difficult news. As you know, enrollment at Christ Our Savior School has fallen in recent years, jeopardizing the future of the school. The low enrollment and corresponding large financial debt make it necessary to close Christ Our Savior School at the end of the current academic year.

I commend the dedicated leaders, faculty and staff of Christ Our Savior School for their tireless work to foster an academically rigorous, faith-filled Catholic school community. Christ Our Savior School has provided a strong education to generations of young men and women, helping them develop intellectually, physically and spiritually.

I am praying for the Christ Our Savior Catholic Church and School communities.

Yours in Christ,
