MEDITATION
ON TODAY'S READINGS
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

You shall not . . . oppress an alien. (Exodus 22:20)

From Pope Francis' address for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees, August 5, 2013:

“Not infrequently, the arrival of migrants, displaced persons, asylum-seekers and refugees gives rise to suspicion and hostility. There is a fear that society will become less secure, that identity and culture will be lost, that competition for jobs will become stiffer and even that criminal activity will increase. . . .

“A change of attitude towards migrants and refugees is needed on the part of everyone, moving away from attitudes of defensiveness and fear, indifference and marginalization—all typical of a throwaway culture—towards attitudes based on a culture of encounter, the only culture capable of building a better, more just and fraternal world. . . .

“Every human being is a child of God! He or she bears the image of Christ! We ourselves need to see, and then to enable others to see, that migrants and refugees do not only represent a problem to be solved, but are brothers and sisters to be welcomed, respected and loved. They are an occasion that Providence gives us to help build a more just society, . . . a more fraternal world, and a more open and evangelical Christian community.

“Migration can offer possibilities for a new evangelization, open vistas for the growth of a new humanity foreshadowed in the paschal mystery: a humanity for which every foreign country is a homeland, and every homeland is a foreign country.” We are all children of God. So let's pray for every marginalized and displaced person who is searching for a more secure future. May God protect them from all the dangers that surround them!

“Thank you, Lord, for hearing the cry of the poor, the refugee, and the outsider!”

RETIRED PRIESTS COLLECTION 2017

During the weekend of November 4-5, the Archdiocese of Washington will take up the second collection for our retired priests. Please use the second collection envelopes that have been mailed to your homes and/or the special collection envelopes that will be placed in the pews. There is currently a shortfall in funding for priests' retirement, and the Archdiocese is working diligently to address this shortfall through such efforts as this special collection. The priests of the Archdiocese have been there for you and your families. Please be there for them to assist in the dignity of their retirement and to honor their lives of service.

BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

November was designated as Black Catholic History Month by the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus. During the month of November, we celebrate the gifts of diversity within the Archdiocese of Washington and the steadfast faith of the African-American Catholics who worship here.

On the evening of Friday, November 10, please join the Office of Cultural Diversity and Outreach as it celebrates the Archdiocese of Washington's Gospel Mass Choir for its steadfast witness. The Mass will begin at 7:30pm, preceded by Praise and Worship starting at 7:00pm. The liturgy will be held at St. Joseph Parish in Largo, Maryland, and will be celebrated by Bishop Roy E. Campbell, Jr. For more information, please contact Sandra Coles-Bell at (301)853-4469 or colesbells@adw.org.

ALL SOULS' DAY VISITS TO CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

One way of remaining in close relationship with our deceased loved ones is to pray for them, reminds Pope Francis (cf. Amoris Laetitia 257). On All Souls' Day, the Church remembers the beloved dead who are still undergoing their purification in the love of Christ. While the souls in Purgatory can pray for us, they can no longer pray for themselves. That spiritual work of mercy is up to us. Parishioners are encouraged to make a prayerful visit to the sacred ground of the Archdiocese's Catholic Cemeteries on Thursday, November 2, to pray for their departed loved ones and all souls who await the resurrection of their bodies in Christ. All Souls' Day Mass will be celebrated at 9:00am in the chapel at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, 1300 Bladensburg Road, NE, Washington, D.C., (202)399-3000. For further information, please contact the Cemetery Manager or visit the Catholic Cemeteries website at ccaw.org.

Visitors will be able to walk through a 3-D digital rendering of the rotunda in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Tomb, including a view of the newly-revealed cave walls that have not been seen in centuries.
