MEDITATION
ON TODAY'S READINGS
Third Sunday of Lent

Give me a drink. (John 4:7)

Jesus and his disciples had been walking all morning. Now the sun was high in the sky and burning down on them. They were hot, dusty, and thirsty. As Jesus sat down next to Jacob's well, he was probably looking forward to a cool drink of water.

But when he asked a Samaritan woman who had come to the well to give him a drink, more was going on than Jesus just looking to quench his physical thirst. As St. Thérèse of Lisieux wrote, "When he said, 'Give me a drink,' it was the love of his poor creature that the Creator of the universe was seeking. He was thirsty for love."

We might wonder why. Why would Jesus desire the love of someone who was not only a Samaritan but who had a checkered past and was living with a man who wasn't her husband? Because that's who Jesus is. Like the Father and the Holy Spirit, Jesus loves each one of us. No matter who we are or what our sins, he who is love cannot help but seek after our love. He thirsts for all of us.

So how do we quench Jesus' thirst? By spending time with him. Don't think of it as an obligation or duty, something you "owe" to God. Think of it instead as a time when you are letting Jesus get his fill of you. He loves you so much that he can't get enough of your undivided attention. He loves you so much that he wants you to put aside all the other demands in your life for a time, go to a quiet place, and sit with him.

So give Jesus the "drink" he asks for. Even if you feel no differently while you are praying, believe that you are delighting Jesus by your presence. Remember, he enjoys being with you! Believe too that as you sit with him, he is giving you the "living water" that will fulfill your deepest needs and desires, the water that is "welling up to eternal life" (John 4:10, 14).

"Jesus, may I thirst for you as you thirst for me."

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of complete fast (eating 1 full meal only, as well as 2 smaller meals that do not equal a full meal) and abstinence (refraining from eating meat). The Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence only. The law of abstinence binds those who have completed their 14th year. The law of fast binds those who have completed their 18th year until the beginning of their 60th year. All are bound to the law of penance, especially during Lent.

You may also make your pledge online at appeal.adw.org. No gift is too small and will support more than 60 ministries and programs benefitting countless women, men, children and families in the Church of Washington, including within our own parish and local community. As always, all of your contribution to the Annual Appeal will be designated to the ministries and programs supported by the Appeal. Thank you for your generous response.
