THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord which marks the end of the Christmas season. We return to Ordinary Time until Ash Wednesday, which will be on March 6, 2019. The Baptism of the Lord is the feast day that commemorates the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River by John the Baptist. Today we only commemorate two major feasts days with eight days of celebration called an Octave. These are Christmas and Easter. Prior to 1955 there was also an Octave for the Epiphany. In that year Pope Pius XII instituted a separate liturgical commemoration for the Baptism of the Lord. The Holy Father established January 13 as the date of the commemoration. He also used the Office and Mass for the Octave of the Epiphany that he had abolished for the new commemoration. In 1969 Pope St. Paul VI set the date for the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord as the first Sunday after January 6. With that change the feast could be celebrated as early as January 9 but no later than January 13 (as it is this year). Pope St. John Paul II began a custom whereby on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the Pope baptizes infants in the Sistine Chapel.

At the beginning of a New Year, people often make resolutions that they hope to carry out during the New Year. Some popular resolutions include improving one's physical well-being by eating healthy food, losing weight, exercising more, drinking less alcohol, quitting smoking, stopping biting one's nails, etc. All of these are good things to do. I would encourage anyone who wants to pursue these worthy goals to do so!

I was listening recently to a podcast by Bishop Robert Barron on New Year's Resolutions and want to pass on to three suggestions to practice in the New Year. I like the fact that there are only three resolutions. When I make a list of things, my success rate decreases in proportion to the number of items on the list. I'll have a greater chance at success if there are only three items instead of six or twelve items. At least for me, less is more! Let me give you Bishop Barron's three suggestions.

1. Prayer. Thomas Merton was once asked by someone how to improve one's life of prayer. Merton's advice was to find the time to do it. We need to find time each day to lift our minds and hearts to God. There are several time-honored practices that can be helpful. One is the Rosary, especially if we take the time to contemplate the mysteries while praying the Our Father and Hail Marys aloud. Another practice would be to pray the Jesus Prayer: Lord Jesus, Son of God, have mercy on me a sinner. In the Eastern Christian tradition, a person inhales while saying the first part of the prayer: Lord Jesus, Son of God and exhales while saying the second part: Have mercy on me a sinner! We can pray this quietly during a time of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. Or we can pray in the car instead of pounding on the dash board in frustration when the traffic isn't moving. A third suggestion here is going to Mass. If we are not attending Sunday Mass on a regular basis, that would be my first suggestion here: attend Mass each weekend! If we already attend each weekend, look at attending one day or several days during the week.

The Baptism of the Lord

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How does my baptism affect the way I live my life? Does prayer help guide me?

WELCOME to the Family of Christ!

Michael Delos Trinos
John & Aurora Estrella
Terri Moraca
K. C. Ramirez

Eli Latevi Lawson
Mary Elrita Quinones

THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR (continued)

- 2. Forgiving an enemy. In this case an enemy could be someone whom we find annoying or who bugs us. I suggest that we should seek to be reconciled with anyone with whom we feel estranged. I remember the sad story of two sisters who lived across the street from each other. For many years they had not spoken to one another over some long-forgotten matter. One day, one of the sisters started to cross the street in an effort to be reconciled with her sister. Half way across the street she lost her nerve and came back. Shortly after that her sister suddenly died. The surviving sister then lived with the sense of regret that they had not reconciled with each other before it was too late. If you are reading this and you can think of someone with whom you should be reconciled, I would advise you to do something concrete about it now: make a phone call, write a note, or make a visit. Don't put off to tomorrow what you should do today!
- 3. Comforting the afflicted. Dorothy Day once made a remark that if we are baptized Christians serious about living the Christian life, then we should practice each day the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. I am not going to list all of them here. But I want to focus on a particular spiritual work of mercy: Comforting the afflicted. We all know people who are ill, lonely, anxious, bored, or afraid. We should reach out to them. St. Teresa of Calcutta observed that the greatest poverty people in places like New York, London, Chicago, or Washington face is spiritual poverty: the poverty of being unloved. Let's see what we can do this year about bringing comfort to someone who needs it.

A final thought as we begin this New Year. This comes from St. Augustine: "Bad times! Troublesome times! These men are saying. Let our lives be good; and the times are good. We make our times; such as we are, such are the times."

Until next week,

Fr. John

Thank you to the 185 parishioners who have returned Commitment Cards for the parish Offertory Stewardship Program, "Responding to God's Call to Love and to Serve." Just over 20 percent of St. Francis parishioners have responded to the call to support our church and we thank everyone who made a new commitment to financially support our Religious Education program, Youth Ministry, Adult Faith Formation Ministry and Social Concerns Ministry, among many others. With one more week remaining in the official program, we ask parishioners to please return their Commitment Cards, so we can capture as many people as possible in the Summary Report to be generated this month. For more information, contact the Parish Office at (301) 840-1407.

UPDATE ON THE REFUGEE FAMILIES HELPED BY ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI PARISH

The St. Francis Pax Christi Ministry continues to provide critical support to recently resettled refugee families in our area. Working with an interfaith alliance of Montgomery County faith communities, St. Francis is helping three families – two from Syria and one from the Central Republic of Africa. We provide support with transportation, English tutoring, help with medical appointments, babysitting while the parents attend medical appointments, coordination with the children's schools, budget management support, employment assistance and social support. We also help with completing paperwork and coordinating appointments necessary to achieve permanent residency in the United States.

Thanks to the generous financial contributions of St. Francis parishioners, we have also provided critical emergency financial support. We have recently offered emergency rental assistance to one family suffering from a job loss, assistance for expenses associated with intensive dental work for another family and rental assistance while the breadwinner of the family recovered from surgery.

The greatest needs at this time are to find stable employment for the men in two of the families who recently lost their jobs. One of the men has skills as an electrician's helper and general handyman. His English language skills are moderate but progressing. The other gentleman has a college degree in Environmental Science from Syria, is driving for Uber, but is hoping to find a position that more fully uses his skills. His English is quite good, as he worked as an Arabic to English translator. Both men drive and have transportation. If you can help either in this area, or for more information about our refugee families, please contact Pax Christi members Mary Kate Ryner at rynoslp@msn.com or Chris King at caking.home@gmail.com.

THE SATURDAY MORNING SPIRITUAL READING GROUP INVITES YOU TO JOIN US FOR A NEW BOOK!

The Saturday Morning Spiritual Reading Group – a diverse group of men and women in different life stages who all share a love of books and discussion – will begin a new book at 8 am Saturday, January 19 in the Rectory's Assisi Room.

In the new book, The Fragility of Order: Catholic Reflections on Turbulent Times, author George Weigel takes readers through world events, such as the First World War, the collapse of communism and two recent U.S. presidencies, as seen through his distinctive cultural and moral lens. The biographer of St. Pope John Paul II, George Weigel is also a political analyst and social activist. He currently serves as a Distinguished Senior Fellow of the Ethics and Public Policy Center.

AMAZONSMILE ENABLES ST. FRANCIS TO INCREASE FUNDRAISING THROUGH ONLINE SHOPPING

Christmas Shopping is done, but St. Francis parishioners can still support our church whenever they're shopping online at Amazon.com. St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church recently became a recipient of AmazonSmile, which enables the church to receive 0.5 percent of the price of eligible AmazonSmile purchases you make. Go to <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/23-7174107> and start shopping! One caveat: we are currently listed as 'St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church, Location: Derwood, MA, not Derwood, MD.' Rest assured that when you use the link above, your funds will support our church. This inaccuracy will be changed soon, but in the meantime, the percentage of your purchases will go to support our St. Francis of Assisi Church of Derwood, MD. ## BROWN BAG CONVERSATION ON JANUARY 13

The Gift: Your Call to Greatness by Christopher West
Sunday, January 13 from 1-2:30 pm in the Rectory's Youth Room
Doors open at 12:45 pm for Brown Bag lunch and fellowship.

"The human body includes right from the beginning... the capacity of expressing love, that love in which the person becomes a gift – and by means of this gift – fulfills the meaning of his being and existence." -

--St. John Paul II

In Your Call to Greatness, author and theologian Christopher West unfolds God's amazing plan for our life. This DVD teaching addresses some of the most fundamental and universal questions of human existence, including:

- What is our "call to greatness" and what is the key to unlocking it?
- What will bring the happiness we all long for?
- What is the "gift" that God desires to give us?
- What does it mean to be "made male and female in the image and likeness of God?"
- How can I live my life in a way that brings true happiness and fulfillment?

After the teaching, enjoy open, honest conversation with fellow parishioners. For more information, contact Adult Faith Formation Team Member Medy DeAussen, medydeausen@comcast.net.

GENUINE FRIENDSHIPS ALSO FOUND AT SMALL GROUP DISCUSSIONS

It's no secret that participants in Small Groups have forged a deeper relationship with God through their weekly readings of Scripture and discussion to better understand the spiritual text. But members of Small Groups have frequently noted the friendships they've made in Small Groups, making wave-and-hello relationships at St. Francis ones of genuine warmth and trust.

Are you ready to get to know your fellow parishioners as friends? Then, join one of the Gospel of Luke Small Groups, which are beginning to meet the week of January 14. The second round of discussions around this well-known Gospel narrative will focus on Luke chapters 12-24. But, in addition to better understanding these narratives of Jesus' life, you will gain insight and learn from the experiences of your fellow Small Group members. And perhaps find a new group of friends, who similarly seek to enhance their faith lives.

There are currently openings in the Gospel of Luke Small Groups that meet on Monday and Tuesday nights in homes, on Wednesday afternoons at the Rectory, and on Saturday mornings in the Rectory's Youth Room (Men of Emmaus Small Group). Current members of the Gospel of Luke Small Groups are also encouraged to pick up their new discussion books at the Rectory before their first meeting. For more information or to find a Gospel of Luke Small Group that would be a good fit for you, please contact Director of Social Concerns and Adult Faith Formation Ministry Tony Bosnick at abosnick@sfadw.org.
