THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

Last Sunday the Church celebrated World Mission Sunday. This celebration goes all the way back to 1926 when Pope Pius XI instituted this commemoration. The first worldwide Mission Sunday collection actually took place in October 1927. Often this collection has been taken up on the next to the last Sunday in October—but this year it was celebrated on the second Sunday of October. The day is celebrated in all local Catholic churches as the feast of catholicity and universal solidarity, so that Christians the world over will recognize their common responsibility with regard to the evangelization of the world.

Not only on World Mission Sunday, but during the whole month of October which has been designated an Extraordinary Missionary Month, we are called to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ and to offer our prayers and generous financial support through the Propagation of the Faith to continue the mission of Jesus. The monies collected during the special collection on World Mission Sunday support priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world in need of His healing, love, and peace. During this Extraordinary Missionary Month I think of our support of our sister parish in Haiti, particularly our support of the Bon Pasteur School there and the medical missions that we help to organize and fund each year there. I think of Fr. Bill Ryan and his work in his parish in Togo. These are missionary experiences with which we have a firsthand encounter.

As part of the celebrations of World Mission Sunday last week in Rome, Pope Francis canonized Blessed John Henry Newman along with that of Sister Mariam Thresia from India, Sister Giuseppina Vannini from Italy, Sister Dulce Lopes Pontes from Brazil, and Marguerite Bays from Switzerland. Here is a little bit about each of them according to a press release from Vatican News.

- Blessed John Henry Newman was one of the most prominent converts to Catholicism from Anglicanism of the 19th century. He was already an esteemed Anglican theologian when he founded the Oxford Movement to return the Church of England to its Anglican roots, before himself converting to the Catholic faith. He was renowned as a brilliant thinker and was made a cardinal by Pope Leo XIII. He died in Birmingham, England in 1890, aged 89, after founding the Birmingham Oratory.
- Sister Mariam Thresia was the founder of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Family.
- Sister Giuseppina Vannini was the founder of the Daughters of Saint Camillus.
- Sister Dulce Lopes Pontes was a member of the Congregation of the Missionary Sisters of the Immaculate Conception of the Mother of God.
- Marguerite Bays was a Secular Franciscan.

I plan to write several columns over the coming weeks devoted to our most recently canonized saints. As we think about these newly canonized saints who were heroically dedicated to the mission of evangelization both in word and deed, I leave you with the following thought: May the love for Church's mission, which is a passion for Jesus and a passion for his people "grow ever stronger?"

Until next week,
Fr. John

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

*What can I do to carry out God's mission in my life?
Will I make time to pray persistently for guidance and support?*

THE BREW CREW WANTS TO SERVE YOU THIS WEEKEND!

The Brew Crew will be serving coffee, doughnuts and juice after the 9:30 am and 11:15 am Masses on Sunday, October 20 in the Gathering Space. Come for some food and fellowship!

BIBLE STUDY ON HOW OUR CATHOLIC FAITH RELATES TO OUR FINANCES

The Navigating Your Finances God's Way Bible Study Groups will begin meeting in early November for nine weeks, offering participants God's perspective about money and possessions. The group study consists of reading and answering questions about Bible verses and discussing how these relate to money management in our lives. Participants also do personal financial exercises, which helps them implement Biblical principles in their daily lives.

An orientation session during which members of the two groups will get to know one another and receive their materials is scheduled at 7 pm Tuesday, October 29, for English speakers and 7 pm Friday, November 1, for Spanish speakers; the locations for these meetings will be communicated to participants by Terry Davis and Mario Alvarenga, the two Bible Study Group facilitators. For more information or to sign up, please contact Deacon Dan Finn at deacondanfinn@gmail.com or Director of Social Concerns and Adult Faith Formation Tony Bosnick at abosnick@sfadw.org.

2019 FEAST DAY PARISH PICNIC

The Parish Picnic was held on Sunday, October 6. It was a glorious day for a picnic. There were lots of fun activities for all ages including decorating pumpkins, sand art, face painting and balloon sculptures created by Buttons the Clown. Even the animals had a blessed time.

A big thank you to Chris Gonzales, Mike Thomas and Anthony D'Sousa who grilled hamburgers and hotdogs to feed the 300+ people who came to feast. Along with the main course provided by the church, there were desserts and side dishes shared by the parishioners. Thank you to all.

A lot of hard work went into this event which illustrates the heart of the St. Francis Community. A special shout out to Eileen Daleus, Marianne Moore, Rose Hudecheck, Rob and Doreen Dyer, Sharon Koscinski and Mary Polissedjian who came Saturday morning to transform the Parish Center into a Fall Festival. Kudos to Sarah Seyed-Ali and the St. Francis Youth Group who were on station to keep the various games and activities running smoothly. A special thank you goes to Dan Huff who created three games run by the Knights of Columbus to keep the many children amused with money filled balloons, baseball pitching and flying monkeys.

Thank you as well to the servers, cleanup crew and all the other volunteers who made this year's picnic extra special. See you all next year on the first Sunday in October -- Rain or Shine!

PARISHIONERS WHO HAVE EXPERIENCED RACISM SOUGHT TO SHARE THEIR EXPERIENCES

In the November 2018 pastoral letter against racism, Open Wide Our Hearts, the Catholic bishops of the United States urge all Catholics to acknowledge "the scourge of racism" that still exists in our hearts, words, actions and institutions. We, at St. Francis, will take up their challenge to understand how we may knowingly, or unknowingly, contribute to this tragic violation of the plan of God for His children. Both the Archdiocese of Baltimore and the Diocese of Richmond are conducting similar sessions on the topic of racism.

We are developing a series of education sessions based on the programs developed by the US Catholic Conference of Bishops (USCCB), including expert talks and panel discussions by individuals sharing their personal experiences of racism in their lives. The first of these sessions will be the talk by Fr. Robert Boxie III at 9:45 am Saturday, Oct. 26, in the Parish Center; Fr. Boxie will address parishioners on the topic, "Love One Another as I Have Loved You: Reflections on Race and Ethnicity." Subsequent sessions will be in 2020.

We are looking for parishioners who have experienced racism due to their race or ethnicity, either overtly or subtly, and are willing to share their experiences in a future session so we may all learn from their experiences. If you are interested in sharing in a future session, please contact Director of Social Concerns and Adult Faith Formation Tony Bosnick at abosnick@sfadw.org. For more information about the racism education series, please contact parishioner and Parish Pastoral Council Member Chris King at caking.home@gmail.com.

YOU DON'T DESERVE TO BE ABUSED

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month, Domestic violence can take different forms, but its purpose is always the same: Abusers want to control their domestic partners through fear. They do this by abusing them physically, sexually, psychologically, verbally and economically. Here are just three of the forms domestic violence can take:

Threats and Intimidation:

- Threatening to harm the victim, the children, family members and pets
- Using physical size to intimidate
- Keeping weapons and threatening to use them
- Shouting

Emotional Withholding:

- Not expressing feelings
- Not giving compliments
- Not paying attention
- Not respecting the victim's feelings, rights and opinions
- Not taking the victim's concerns seriously

Destruction of Property:

- Destroying furniture
- Punching walls
- Throwing or breaking things
- Abusing pets

If you experience any form of abuse, please know that there is help. Call the National Domestic Violence Hotline (800) 799-7233. To learn more about domestic violence visit: www.catholiccharitiesdc.org/familypeace. If you would like to speak with someone confidentially, please call Fr. John or one of the deacons at (301) 840-1407.

RCIA TEAM SEEKS PARISHIONERS TO BE SPONSORS OF CANDIDATES

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a parish wide commitment to help people wanting to walk with Jesus Christ as Catholics on their journey of faith. RCIA is not intended to be just the work of a few people, but of the whole parish.

We need parishioners to step up and join in this ministry of love. It is God's work, and as such, the Holy Spirit will give you the courage and words to be part of this ministry. As we move into the next phase of RCIA in December, we need parishioners to be sponsors of the Candidates. This involves meeting with the Candidates just about every week (currently) on Thursday evening and to greet them at Mass. It calls us to share our time and talents. Those who have answered the call have found it to be a time of great blessing for them, as well.

Please pray and listen to see if God is asking you to serve Him in this way. If you have questions, contact Tony Bosnick, who is coordinating RCIA this year, or Fr. John. You can reach Tony at (301) 840-1407 or at abosnick@sfadw.org. Contact Fr. John at the same phone number or please speak with him after Mass.

Thank you!
