THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

One of the songs of the Christmas season that I like is “It’s the Most Wonderful Time of the Year,” which Andy Williams made popular a number of years ago now. One of the reasons that I think that it is the most wonderful time of the year is seeing the selfless generosity of so many people. I think of Bobbie McLaughlin and all her helpers who organize the Spirit Tree and the enormous number of Christmas gifts that our parish sends to the people who rely upon Assumption Parish in Southwest Washington to make their Christmas a little brighter by providing toys and other gifts to their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. In a similar vein, I think of Susan Anderson, Melisa Biedron, and our catechists who organize the Christmas stocking gift program in collaboration with Catholic Charities. I also think of Pat O’Connor and all her helpers who organize the Alternative Christmas whereby local, national, and international charities receive some assistance from parishioners during this Advent and Christmas season. Or I think of Brian Pettit, Wayne Burnside, and all their helpers who have sold Christmas trees on many cold nights this December. I cannot forget Carolyn Brauer and those who helped her make Christmas wreaths which were available for sale along with the Christmas trees. I am grateful to them and all their helpers—too many to name—for promoting initiatives that help parishioners celebrate Advent and prepare for the birth of Christ in a joyful way. I am also gratified to see once again how generous our parishioners are to people in need. That is why I think that this is “the most wonderful time of the year.”

I have been asked three questions by various parishioners that I want to answer in the remaining space that I have in this column for our bulletin that we will distribute on Christmas Eve. The questions concern what are the “O” Antiphons, what is Las Posadas, and what is Simbang Gabi?

First, let’s discuss the “O” Antiphons. From December 17-24, a set of antiphons—all beginning with the word “O” are sung at Evening Prayer before the Gospel canticle known as the Magnificat. We have been singing the “O” Antiphons since at least the eighth century. They are the basis of the popular Advent song “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel.” They use ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim that Christ is the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but present ones as well. These antiphons also form the text for the Gospel acclamations in the Lectionary for Mass on these days.

Las Posadas is an event that essentially covers the same period as the “O” Antiphons. For eight days before Christmas, people wander in procession from home to home looking for a place that will take them in. On each night, a home has been chosen in advance to welcome the procession, and there is much singing and feasting. An image of the Christ child is left in the home until the next night, when the procession begins.

Fourth Sunday of Advent

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What is my mission? What is God calling me to do? How can I fulfill my mission?

PARISH OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED
TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY,
DECEMBER 24 & 25
FOR CHRISTMAS

Merry Christmas from Fr. John
& the Parish Staff!

KNIGHTS DONATE NEEDED FUNDS TO GROUPS SERVING PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES

The Knights of Columbus Council 2323 had a successful Tootsie Roll fundraiser, in support of people with intellectual disabilities. The Knights raised $3,078, which will be donated to Special Olympics Maryland and UpCounty Community Resources. We wish to thank all of the parishioners of St. Francis for their support in this cause!

THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR (continued)

Las Posadas commemorates the journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem and recalls that there was no room for Mary and Joseph in the inn. In the United States, this Mexican tradition has extended to other Latin American communities, perhaps due to identification with the migration experience of the Holy Family.

Simbang Gabi (Filipino for “Night Mass”) is a traditional nine day novena Mass in anticipation of the birth of the Lord celebrated by Filipinos all over the world. Most churches where this is celebrated are decorated with colorful lights and lanterns to welcome the church goers. The Nativity Scene is displayed in preparation of the birth of Jesus Christ. It shows the baby Jesus in a manger with Mary and Joseph. There are shepherds and farm animals. The complete scenario includes the three wise men carrying their gifts to the Christ child and the star of Bethlehem that guided them on their journey. The tradition of Simbang Gabi was introduced in the Philippines by the Spanish friars to allow farmers to attend Mass before going to the fields early in the morning, but it is now often celebrated in the evening.

Merry Christmas!
Fr. John

We will have Crossing Guards at the earlier Masses, but will ask everyone's cooperation and patience going in and out of our parking lot. Remember to be considerate of the Crossing Guard who is working on Christmas Eve to ensure your safety. Thank you!

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT IN HELPING PAX CHRISTI SERVE REFUGEE FAMILIES

The St. Francis Pax Christi Ministry thanks the benefactors and volunteers who supported our locally sponsored refugees and families seeking asylum this past year. Currently, we are working with four families. Highlights of our support in 2019 include paying for dental costs for adult family members, supplementing rent payments, paying utility costs, working with another nonprofit to purchase back-to-school supplies for 300 refugee and needy children in Hyattsville and covering the cost of missed wages when one of the refugee family breadwinners had a necessary surgery. We also contributed to the purchase of a car for work for one family.

Our volunteers are busier than ever, and the needs are great. We are currently providing transportation, tutoring in English and schoolwork, identifying housing, assisting with medical needs, helping with budgeting, offering legal documentation support, and other emergency help. It has truly been a great blessing to work with these 'new neighbors.'

For more information about our efforts, please contact Mary Kate Ryner at rynoslp@msn.com or Chris King at caking\_home@gmail.com. Donations can be made to St. Francis of Assisi with designation to Refugee Fund.

SAVE THE DATE ON JANUARY 18 FOR THE HAITI BENEFIT CONCERT

It's nearly time for the Haiti Benefit Concert – get ready for lots of toe tapping! The annual concert will feature the Olney Big Band, a traditional jazz big band specializing in classic swing, jazz and dance music from the Big Band Era of the 30s and 40s and arrangements from the 50s to present day. The full band will perform at 7:30 pm in the church and the event is open to the public. While there will be no admission charged, all donations will benefit the Haiti Medical Mission in St. Francis of Assisi's sister parish in Léon, Haiti. Please invite your family, friends, and neighbors to the concert, as it's a wonderful way to introduce others to our parish community. A reception of light hors d'oeuvres and desserts will follow the event in the Gathering Space. For more information, please contact Director of the Music Ministry Janet Pate at sfadwmusic@gmail.com.

ON JANUARY 5, MASS FOR ALL OF GOD'S CHILDREN CELEBRATES PEOPLE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Mass for All of God's Children, which especially recognizes children and adults with special needs and developmental differences in our communities, will be held at the 5:00 p.m. Youth Mass, on Sunday, January 5, 2019 at our church. St. Francis Special Events Ministry Coordinator Sylvia Jones and her volunteers will host a small reception after the Mass. If you or a person with special needs in your life is interested in serving as a lector, usher, altar server, or Joyful Greeter at the Mass for All of God's People, please contact Sylvia at (301) 762-6564 or by e-mail her at decaffqueen@gmail.com.
