St. Peter's Parish Mission Statement

We are a Spirit-filled, caring and compassionate community of pilgrims under the patronage of St. Peter. United in Christ Jesus, we come together in the historic Church of St. Peter-in-Chains, Trenton of the Catholic Archdiocese of Kingston to celebrate our faith in Word and Sacrament. Drawing life from the Eucharist, we serve in charity and promote justice so all may share in the reconciliation, peace and hope of Christ. In this way, we strive to live the Good News of the Lord.

Please remember St. Peter-in-Chains Parish in your will. A gift to the Parish will help carry on the Lord's work you so generously supported during your life time.

We praise the Risen Lord and give thanks to all who contributed to making Easter Triduum such a success. From our altar servers, choir, ushers, church decorators to all those who assisted in anyway ~ Thank you! A special thanks to Nicole and Tom Painter who organized and rehearsed the altar servers (and priests).

EASTER BLESSINGS

May the rich graces of the Risen Lord Jesus be poured out in ever greater abundance upon you and yours, and upon the entire Church and world!

Jesus, I trust in You

“God is the first "home" of human beings, and only by dwelling in God do people burn with a flame of divine love that can set the world 'on fire'.”
Pope Benedict XVI

Divine Mercy ~ Plenary Indulgence

Sun., April 11, 3–4pm ~ Divine Mercy Holy Hour. The Second Sunday of Easter is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. To ensure that Catholics would observe this day with special devotion, St. (Pope) John Paul II enriched this day with a plenary indulgence and directed that priests should promote this devotion among the faithful. An indulgence is a remission before God of temporal punishment due to sin. On Divine Mercy Sunday, a plenary indulgence (a total remission of temporal punishment) is granted to the faithful who: (1) go to Confession (within 20 days), (2) receive Holy Communion, (3) pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, (4) take part in the parish prayers and devotions held in honour of the Divine Mercy on this day, and (5) have no attachment to sin. The Divine Mercy devotion originated with Sister Faustina Kowalska who had a vision of the Divine Mercy and received special promises from Jesus

Sun., Aug. 29th ~ as the weather becomes warmer, it's time to mark your calendar. More details will follow in a few months.

On the Day of the Resurrection, Easter Sunday, the greatest feast of the Church's year, we celebrate Christ's decisive victory over evil and death. Easter also gives hints of resurrection in a number of other ways. With the arrival of Spring, surely varying in degree from year to year, we witness a transformation in nature, a resurrection, from cold and wind and storm to budding trees and blooming flowers. Another kind of resurrection takes place within the Body of the Church. During the Easter services, you and I renewed our baptismal vows. As the Church, you and I are part of a new and holy renewal, opening our minds and hearts to the energizing forces of the Risen Christ

A parishioner was in front of me coming out of church one day, and the priest was standing at the door as he always is to shake hands. He grabbed the parishioner by the hand and pulled him aside. The Pastor said to him, "You need to join the Army of the Lord!" The parishioner replied, "I'm already in the Army of the Lord, Pastor." Pastor questioned, "How come I don't see you except at Christmas and Easter?" He whispered back, "I'm in the secret service."
