

FIRST READING Wisdom 6:12-16

November 8, 2020 Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

A reading from the book of Wisdom

Wisdom shines brightly, and she is easily seen by all who love her and search for her.

Wisdom hurries to meet everyone who wants to be wise. if you get up early and search, you will easily find her at your front door.

Keep your mind on Wisdom, and you will be very wise.

Keep thinking about her, and all of your worries will soon disappear.

Wisdom goes around searching for those who deserve her. She meets them along the road and stays in their thoughts.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 63:1, 2-3, 6-7

November 8, 2020 Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

All: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

You are my God. I worship you. In my heart, I long for you. In my heart, I long for you, as I would long for a stream in a scorching desert.

All: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

I have seen your power and your glory in the place of worship. Your love means more than life to me, and so I praise you.

All: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

I think about you before I go to sleep, and my thoughts turn to you during the night. You have helped me, and I sing happy songs in the shadow of your wings.

All: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READING 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18

November 8, 2020 Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

My friends, we want you to understand how it will be for those followers who have already died. Then you won't grieve over them and be like people who don't have any hope. We believe that Jesus died and was raised to life. We also believe that when God brings Jesus back again, he will bring with him all who had faith in Jesus before they died. Our Lord Jesus told us that when he comes, we won't go up to meet him ahead of his followers who have already died.

With a loud command and with the shout of the chief angel and a blast of God's trumpet, the Lord will return from heaven. Then those who had faith in Christ before they died will be raised to life.

Next, all of us who are still alive will be taken up into the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the sky. From that time on we will all be with the Lord forever.

Encourage each other with these words.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL Matthew 25:1–13

November 8, 2020 Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus told his disciples this story about the kingdom of Heaven: “The kingdom of heaven is like what happened one night when ten girls took their oil lamps and went to a wedding to meet the groom.

Five of the girls were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones took their lamps, but no extra oil. The ones who were wise took along extra oil for their lamps.

“The groom was late arriving, and the girls became drowsy and fell asleep.

Then in the middle of the night someone shouted, ‘Here’s the groom! Come to meet him!’

“When the girls got up and started getting their lamps ready, the foolish ones said to the others,

‘Let us have some of your oil! Our lamps are going out.’

“The girls who were wise answered, ‘There’s not enough oil for all of us! Go and buy some for yourselves’

“While the foolish girls were on their way to get some oil, the groom arrived.

The girls who were ready went into the wedding, and the doors were closed.

Later the other girls returned and shouted, ‘Sir! Sir! Open the door for us!’

“But the groom replied, ‘I don’t even know you!’

“So, my disciples, always be ready! You don’t know the day or the time when all this will happen.”
