Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

FIRST READING: Amos 7:10–15

A reading from the book of the prophet Amos

Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent this message to Jeroboam the king of Israel: “Amos is plotting against you in the very heart of Israel. Our nation cannot put up with his message for very long. Here is what he is saying, ‘Jeroboam will be put to death, and the people will be taken to a foreign country.’”

Amaziah then told Amos, “Take your visions and leave! Go back to Judah and earn your living there as a prophet. Don’t do any more preaching at Bethel. The king worships here, and this is our national temple.”

Amos answered, “I’m not a prophet! And I wasn’t trained to be a prophet. I raise livestock and take care of fig trees. But the Lord told me to leave my herds and preach to the people of Israel.”

The word of the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 85:8abc & 9, 10-11,12-13

All: Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

I will listen to you, Lord God, because you promise peace to those who are faithful. You are ready to rescue everyone who worships you, so that you will live with us in all of your glory.

All: Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

*Love and loyalty
will come together;
goodness and peace will unite. Loyalty will sprout
from the ground;
justice will look down
from the sky above.*

All: Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

*Our Lord, you will bless us;
our land will produce wonderful crops.
Justice will march in front, making a path for you to follow.*

All: Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 1:3–10

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters: Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for the spiritual blessings that Christ has brought us from heaven!

Before the world was created, God had Christ choose us to live with him and to be his holy and innocent and loving people.

God was kind and decided that Christ would choose us to be God's own adopted children.

God was very kind to us because of the Son he dearly loves, and so we should praise God.

Christ sacrificed his life's blood to set us free, which means that our sins are forgiven.

Christ did this because God was so kind to us.

God has great wisdom and understanding, and by what Christ has done, God has shown us his own mysterious ways.

Then when the time is right, God will do all that he has planned, and Christ will bring together everything in heaven and on earth.

The word of the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Mark 6:7–13

July 11, 2021 Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus called together his twelve apostles and sent them out two by two with power over evil spirits.

He told them, “You may take along a walking stick. But don’t carry food or a traveling bag or any money. It’s all right to wear sandals, but don’t take along a change of clothes.

“When you are welcomed into a home, stay there until you leave that town.

If any place won’t welcome you or listen to your message, leave and shake the dust from your feet as a warning to them.”

The apostles left and started telling everyone to turn to God. They forced out many demons and healed a lot of sick people by putting olive oil on them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
