Angela Kennecke is a veteran broadcast journalist and award-winning investigative reporter. Over the last decade, many of Angela's stories focused on the growing opioid crisis. On May 16, 2018, the day her 21-year-old daughter, Emily, died of a Fentanyl overdose, Angela was working on an investigation into Good Samaritan Laws and overdose deaths.

Angela has taken Emily's story nationwide and even internationally. Angela speaks tirelessly about the issues surrounding opioid addiction, a parent's frustration and sense of helplessness and tells it all from the perspective of a mother who has lost her child. Angela started a non-profit organization called "Emily's Hope," because she never gave up hope on her daughter and now wants to offer hope to other families struggling with addiction.
