OUR PARISH COMMUNITY MISSION STATEMENT
We, the family of St. Angela Merici, a welcoming community with a rich heritage, live out our Baptismal call to become the Body of Christ through Eucharist, Evangelization and Stewardship.

The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed that is the smallest of all the seeds. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.
Mark 4:31-32

HELP NEEDED

Would you please consider helping us with our immaculate Altar Server Albs?

What is an Alb? It is a liturgical vestment. Specifically, it is the white garment that is worn by our altar servers.

We need someone to oversee our altar server albs. They need to be washed (as needed) so they are nice and clean for our liturgies.

If you might be able to assist, please contact either Alex in the office (831) 655-4190 ext. 26 or Paula MacAlpine at (831) 920-2869

Please consider helping in this important endeavor.
Happy Father’s Day

Father’s Day can hold many emotions for both men and women - those who had a loving father that passed away, those who never knew their dad, those expectantly waiting to become a dad soon, and countless other situations surrounding the father-child relationship. God can use Father’s Day to draw us closer to Himself the one true Father who remains faithful and full of unconditional love.

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives. Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail. We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father’s Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways, both big and small, they lift children to achieve dreams though beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent: grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins and teachers.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You.

We ask your blessing on those men who served as father figures in our lives. When our biological fathers weren’t able to do so. May the love and selflessness they showed us be returned to them in all their relationships, and help them to know that their influence has changed us for the better.

Give new and future fathers the guidance they need to raise happy and holy children, grounded in a love for God and other people and remind these fathers that treating their wives with dignity, compassion and respect is one of the greatest gifts they can give their children.
Consider being involved!
We miss you and the gifts you have!

Whether you are interested in serving, connecting with others, worshipping, giving, or growing spiritually, we offer many opportunities for adults of all ages, and youth, to choose from. This bulletin along with our website is the best source of information for those wanting to engage.

Our liturgical ministries utilize the talents and gifts that God has given our community to the fullest extent. Whether participation is through “behind the scenes” preparation and planning or through a public role of service within the Mass, parishioner contributions help our liturgies to be truly life-giving celebrations.

Please prayerfully consider joining one of these ministries:

EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS - along with the priest and on occasion, deacon, assist with the distribution of the Body and Blood of Christ to the assembly during Mass. Training is provided. Qualifications for the ministry include:

- Must be a practicing Catholic and fully initiated (Baptized, Confirmed, and First Holy Communion)
- Registered parishioner of St. Angela Merici
- 16 years or older with a mature demeanor and a willingness to serve fellow parishioners
- Attend scheduled training and ongoing formation opportunities

LECTORS/READERS - proclaim the Word of the Lord during Mass. Therefore, they must be comfortable with public speaking, and proficient with diction, enunciation, pronunciation, and projection. Training is provided along with ongoing faith formation opportunities.

GREETERS (Hospitality Ministers) - Following Christ’s example of welcoming all with open arms, our hospitality ministers open doors and warmly greet all that come to worship with us. Responsibilities may include (but not limited to):

- Greeting and assisting parishioners
- Passing baskets during the offertory
- Guiding parishioners during Communion
- Cleaning up the Church before the next Mass
- Distributing handouts including the bulletin

Interested individuals and families should be hospitable, have an ability to see the needs of others and respond to them, and be welcoming.

Please contact: Alex@stangelamerici.org or ph (831) 655-4160 ext. 26
The summer season is a perfect time for the entire family to nurture and grow their faith. Consider doing some of the following wherever your summer takes you.

♦ Go on a family walk, hike, or bicycle ride, and stop to appreciate nature and the presence of God.

♦ Start each day with a prayer before setting out for camp, school, work, or family activities.

♦ We’re fortunate enough to live in a place rich in Church history. Consider taking a day trip to a mission or retreat center.

Creator God
who breathed this world into being,
who is discernible within
the harmony of nature,
the perfection of a butterfly’s wing,
the grandeur of a mountain range,
the soaring eagle and humming bird,
thank you for this world
which you have created.
Thank you for summer sun,
which reminds us
that your creative breath
is still alive and active.
Thank you for the warmth of your love,
sustaining this world.

AMEN.

Father,
This summer will be full of new experiences for me and my friends: new jobs, exciting mission trips, and vacations to places we’ve never been before. Grow us, stretch us through whatever we do, and through wherever we go, so that we’ll end the summer just a little more like you.

Ordinary Time

Paul Turner

Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year, fills the weeks “which do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ.” It’s the no-particular-reason season. Christmas Time honors the birth of Christ. Easter Time rejoices in the resurrection. Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

The number of the weeks of Ordinary Time replaces the old counting of weeks “after Epiphany” and “after Pentecost.” The old calendar suggested that Pentecost ran for six months. The new calendar gives Pentecost a day. Then we return to Ordinary Time.

At first glance the principles of Ordinary Time seem basic enough. Start counting the weeks after Christmas Time. Break for Lent and Easter. Resume after Pentecost and keep counting till Advent. Basically, that’s how it works. But we have a few quirks.

For example, there is no “First Sunday in Ordinary Time”; however, there is a first week. Usually Christmas Time ends on a Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. The lectionary also calls it the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, but it is part of Christmas Time. (Some years the Baptism of the Lord falls on a Monday, but that’s another story.) Ordinary Time gets underway on a weekday. When the next Sunday rolls around we start week two.

On the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we see the last of Ordinary Time until after Pentecost. Even then, it emerges only on weekdays. Trinity Sunday always follows Pentecost Sunday, and the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord comes the next Sunday in the United States. (In countries where this solemnity is a holy day, it falls on a Thursday.) So when the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time return in summer, we start out a little higher than where we left off.

Sometimes we skip one or two entire weeks of Ordinary Time during the Easter break. We want to close the Sundays of the year with Christ the King, one week before Advent. Christ the King always falls on the 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time. So, we determine the week number after Pentecost not based on where we left off before Lent but counting backwards from Christ the King. One or two weeks may disappear, but Ordinary Time still serves the complete mystery of Christ.
