OUR PARISH COMMUNITY MISSION STATEMENT
We, the family of St. Angela Merici, a welcoming community with a rich heritage, live out our Baptismal call to become the Body of Christ through Eucharist, Evangelization and Stewardship.
Would you please consider helping us with our Immaculate Altar Server Albs?

What is an Alb? It is a liturgical vestment. Specifically, it is the white garment that is worn by our altar servers.

We need someone to oversee our altar server albs. They need to be washed (as needed) so they are nice and clean for our liturgies.

If you might be able to assist, please contact either Alex in the office (831) 655-4190 ext. 26 or Paula MacAlpine at (831) 920-2869.
Benedictus

The Benedictus, also known by various titles including Luke 1: Benedictus or The Canticle of Zachariah, is prayed every day at morning prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours. The text refers to Saint John the Baptist, not Jesus (and we celebrate St. John the Baptist’s nativity, today).

The words of The Benedictus are those uttered by Zechariah, John the Baptist’s father, who could not speak. Upon hearing about the birth of a son so late in his life, he blurted this song of praise to God and left generations with one of the most beautiful and prophetic canticles in the church’s treasury.

A St. Angela Merici Style Thank You to the Anniversary Committee Members:
Anna Marie Cardoso, Beth Shammas, Bobbie Morrison, Linda Pagnella, and Jordan Lewis, each of whom helped to organize the events and publications celebrating the 60th Anniversary of our current building and the 90th Anniversary of our Parish community, and a special thank you to anyone who attended, contributed to, or participated in any of the following:
The 60th Anniversary Mass with Bishop Garcia.
The Celtic Night Celebration
The Pacific Grove Chamber of Commerce Mixer
The tour of the Korean Presbyterian Church - the original Saint Angela Merici Church
The 90th Anniversary Mass and lunch reception
Thank you to everyone who shared your Saint Angela Merici Community story
Everyone who participated in the publication of the new parish pictorial directory
Anyone who contributed photos and artifacts!

Thank You Very Much!
- Joe Shammas
Small Christian Communities have existed at Saint Angels Merici for over 20 years. They are small, diverse groups of parishioners who meet to engage in discussions that are centered around scripture and how our Catholic faith is lived in today’s context. Those who have participated in Small Christian Communities have come to truly value bonds formed and friendships made and sustained.

Our Small Christian Communities are in various stages of development—we have groups that have been together since the beginning; groups that have been formed fairly recently; and groups that have formed within the last two years.

Small Christian Communities have existed in various forms since the early church which was, in and of itself, a Small Christian Community. At the second Vatican Council, the bishops called for local churches to develop micro-communities within the greater parish community—groups rooted in strong personal relationships.

Our Small Christian Communities are exemplary models for stewardship. Many groups serve the parish Community in other ministerial capacities such as contributing to the annual Dinner and Auction with Golf (SAMDAG), participating in serving communities in need, serving in many liturgical ministries - just to name a few. Members of Small Christian Communities often remark that participating in parish ministries alongside their Small Christian Communities makes the experience far more enriching.

What parishioners are saying about their Small Christian Communities:

“My Small Christian Community makes me feel much more at peace.”

“This Small Christian Community is a wonderful support and is very uplifting.”

“I enjoy being with like-minded people to study the word of God.”

“I find it a time of laughter and support, as these are people that I can share innermost thoughts and know that they will stay within the group. We truly care for each other, share the ups and downs that life gives us and receive the support that is needed for many Situations. These are friends I can rely on when I need help for anything!”

From an experienced SCC Member

“I have been in a Small Christian Community for almost 18 years. I can tell you how much it strengthens my faith, enriches my life and makes me understand the bible in a deeper way.

One very important point is that we discuss the readings and the Gospel, and this prepares me for next Sunday.

I always look forward to the meeting in order to pray with the group, visit with them and share my thoughts and experiences.”
Looking for a way to Help the Needy?

St. Angela’s SVDP Food Cupboard needs help with our ministry to the poor. We have been giving out food to the needy every week for 27 years. Our volunteer ranks had thinned in this past year and we would like committed persons for the following:

1.) Needed: Volunteers to distribute food from the Parish Food Cupboard located in our Small Hall from 1:30 to 2:30 on Tuesday and Thursdays. You would work no more than one day a week. You would work with two other volunteers. Training is provided.

Please contact Dave at 831.915.6455 for more information.

2.) Needed: Food cupboard bag fillers. We sort donated food in the rectory garage and fill bags with non-perishable food and bring them over to the Parish Food Cupboard in the Small Hall to be given to families and the homeless. You and two other volunteers will make up a team that works every fifth week to do this. It involves an hour or so two days during that week. Please consider helping out!

Training is provided. Call Pat at 831.657.4297 for more information.

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL LIBRARY—AND WE DO MEAN LOCAL!

Stop by the parish library (more than just coffee and donuts) and peruse. Sign up for a card and check a book, dvd, or magazine out!

Enrich your spirituality and your knowledge of your faith.

There are even new items in the Liturgy section that will open your mind and heart to the endless possibilities of the love of God in the beautiful Sunday liturgy.

Alex recommends America Magazine, a Jesuit magazine that speaks about current news and world topics.

Close the iPad! Open your eye-lids to the parish library. God Bless you!

“The Eucharist is a priceless treasure.”

Fridays–8:30 — 10:00am,
Adoration Chapel

All are welcome to join us.

Please note:

The Parish Office will be closed on Wednesday, July 4th in observance of Independence Day.
