Happy Father’s Day

Father’s Day can hold many emotions for both men and women - those who had a loving father that passed away, those who never knew their dad, those expectantly waiting to become a dad soon, and countless other situations surrounding the father-child relationship. God can use Father’s Day to draw us closer to Himself, the one true Father who remains faithful and full of unconditional love.

This Father’s Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways, both big and small, they lift children to achieve dreams though beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent: grandfathers and uncles, brothers, cousins and teachers.

We ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You.

We ask your blessing on those men who served as father figures in our lives. When our biological fathers weren’t able to do so. May the love and selflessness they showed us be returned to them in all their relationships, and help them to know that their influence has changed us for the better.

Give new and future fathers the guidance they need to raise happy and holy children, grounded in love. We give our thanks God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual. We ask for Your blessings for them all.

Amen

Theology on Tap

Wednesday, June 26th, 6:30 PM
London Bridge Pub, 256 Figueroa Street
(at the foot of Wharf 2), Monterey

Our speaker this month is Jewel Gentry, California Missions Coordinator at the Diocese of Monterey, and Museum Manager at Carmel Mission and Mission San Juan Bautista. Jewel’s topic will be “Sacred Space in the California Missions: Looking Back to Move Forward.” Our missions were built not just as places of worship, but as ways to tell the story of Christ in the world. Beyond the artwork inside each mission, the buildings themselves relate Christian faith, in their shapes, locations, orientations, even the materials from which they are built. Learn to understand the stories the missions are telling! Join us for interesting and enlightening conversation as we delve deeper into our faith and enjoy dinner with friends.

All are welcome!

Join Monterey Theology on Tap on Facebook! You can also send questions to Deacon Warren Hoy at whoy@dioceseofmonterey.org. We hope to see you there!
AS WE CELEBRATE TRINITY SUNDAY

It would be a great time to ‘take in’ our tapestry depiction of Andrei Rublev’s Trinity Icon, which dates back to the 15th Century. In the ensuing 600 years, this depiction has become the quintessential image of the Trinity, with an empty space at the table for us, the faithful, to enter into the mystery of the Trinity. The image is taken from Abraham’s visit by three mysterious strangers:

“The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oak of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent while the day was growing hot. Looking up, he saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground, he said, ‘Sir, if it please you, do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought that you may bathe your feet and then rest under the tree’”

(Gen. 18: 1-6).

Rublev depicts these three figures as equal in size and authority each holds a rod in the left hand. Each wears, in some way, the color blue – the color of divinity. Each face, though different in pose, is otherwise the same – another symbol of their oneness.

The Father is the figure on the left – clothed in blue and a light, almost transparent color – the hidden creator. With his right hand he blesses the Son. Note that his head is the only one that is lifted high, yet his gaze is turned to the other two figures.

The Son is portrayed as the middle figure clothed in the blue of divinity and the reddish purple of priesthood. His head is bowed in submission to the father, and his right hand blesses the chalice he is to drink.

The Spirit is indicated in the figure on the right – over the blue tunic, we observe a cloak of green, a color often used to indicate growth and new life. The Spirit’s posture is similar to that of the Son.

“The more we look at this holy image with the eyes of faith, the more we come to realize that is it painted not as lovely decoration for a convent church, nor as helpful explanation of a difficult doctrine, but as a holy place to enter and stay within. As we place ourselves in front of the icon in prayer, we come to experience a gentle invitation to participate in the intimate conversation that is taking place among the three divine persons and to join them around the table. The movement of the Father toward the Son and the movement of the Son and the Spirit toward the Father become a movement in which the one who prays is lifted up and held secure. We come to see with our inner eyes that all engagements in this world can bear fruit only when they take place within this divine circle, the house of perfect love”

-Henri Nouwen (Behold the Beauty of the Lord, p. 20-22)
